“ At such a tender age Brittney's journey in life has come to an end. I am very sorry to learn that she has slowly faded away into the shadow of death. Her life was filled with life, goals, dreams, and desires. What will be remembered about her is what she has left behind to grow. She has sown many seeds of good and truth. She is a good example for young ones to follow and to realize with effort and hard work there is success, accomplishment, and fulfillment. In the book of remembrance she will be listed as an achiever of goodness. Hoping in the days to come you will begin to heal and treasure each and happy moment spent together. Jesus Christ the son of GOD also fell asleep in death and for three days he did not exist. His father Almighty God resurrected him from the grave. So for those who passes on can look forward to the time when Almighty GOD awaken those who are asleep in the graves. Also there are other accounts in the gospels of people who experience a resurrection. Looking forward to the time when you all can be a happy family again and enjoyed endless life together John 5: 28, 29. Isaiah 25:8. With my deepest sympathy love, and care for all who are mourning over a precious one who is resting.

“ Robert, Shell & Whitehead Family,

Her Journey's Just Begun

*Don't think of her as gone away -
Her journey has just begun
Life holds many facets
The Earth is only one
Just think of her as resting
From the sorrows and the tears
In a place of warmth and comfort
Where there are no days and years
Think how she must be wishing
That we could know today
How nothing but our sadness can really pass away
And think of her as living
In the hearts of those she touched
For nothing loved is ever lost-
And she was loved so much.*

Hoping your treasured memories bring you comfort day by day. May it also comforts you to know friends are thinking of you and remembering you in their prayers.

Losing someone that was truly loved is difficult. The Bible comforts us at Ecclesiastes 3:11. "Everything he has made pretty in its time. Even to time indefinite he has put in their hearts."
