“ My heartfelt condolences to the family of Brother Crowder. I didn't have the pleasure of knowing my dear brother, but I entertain the same hope that he had; the hope of the resurrection. I look forward to meeting my brother in Jehovah's paradise, and I pray that he comforts and sustains his family and friends until that wonderful day when Jehovah brings him back to life in his beautiful paradise. Meanwhile, may we all have plenty to do in the work of the Lord; knowing that our labor is not in vain in connection with the Lord." Won't it be a wonderful thing when Jehovah swallows up death forever, and instead of obituary columns, we'll have resurrection columns to rejoice in. Please keep in mind Psalms 68:20 which says: "The true God is for us a God of saving acts, and to the Sovereign Lord Jehovah belongs the ways out from death." May Jehovah's undeserved kindness continue to be with you in your sorrow, and may your precious memories of Brodie help you to cope in the days to come.##imported-begin##Rita Johnson##imported-end##

“ Bro. Crowder was a man who loved and trusted in his God Jehovah. He put Jehovah first in his life and serving Jehovah became his top priority. Surely Bro. Crowder had faith in Jesus' words "He that exercises faith in me, even though he dies will come to life" My heartfelt condolences to the family and remember you also can have the hope of seeing your father and mother again if you draw close to Jehovah.##imported-begin##Jannice P Lewis##imported-end##

“ I will always remember not only Mr. Crowder as my daughter's (April)grandfather but also as Bro. Crowder, my spiritual brother in the truth, as a loving, caring man. If it wasn't for him and his wife, I would had never came to know Jehovah, and I will always be grateful for that, and I know he will remain in Jehovah's memory until the resurrection, in which he believed in. This is the loving God we serve, "that one day all those in the memorial tombs will hear his voice and come out." (John 5:28) Sis. Stephanie Wilson##imported-begin##Stephanie Wilson##imported-end##
