

Bruce Hargrove

September 24, 1957 - February 8, 2021

Bruce W. Hargrove was born September 24, 1957 to Edna R. Hargrove and Oliver T. Hargrove. Bruce attended Richmond, Virginia Public Schools and graduated from John Marshall High School. He was baptized at a tender age and continued to serve the Lord his entire life. As a young adult, Bruce proudly served our country in the United States Army as a Sergeant.

He was affectionately known by his friends and family as “Big Money Grip.” The nickname, “Big Money Grip,” stems from his love of custom fashion suits, dress shoes, neck ties, and designer hats. He was rarely seen without his gold jewelry and was known to carry large amounts of cash money. Bruce had a fondness for nice things including his Big Blue Cadillac with a white top that he once owned. Bruce enjoyed reading the Bible & the newspaper, listening to gospel music, and playing Solitaire which he would do for hours.

Bruce is preceded in death by his mother, Edna R. Hargrove and brother, Floyd T. Hargrove.

He is survived by his son, Bruce W. Hargrove, Jr.; father, Oliver T. Hargrove; one sister, Charlotte Sydnor; nieces, Rochelle Smith

(Oscar) and Tiffani Howard (Kennie); nephews, Floyd Hargrove, Jr. (Tamisha) and Jermaine Hargrove (Fatimah), along with a host of other family members. In addition to many devoted friends, Bruce also leaves behind several dedicated nurses & caregivers including Ms. Sylvia Hargrove, Ms Merle Hill, and Mr. Frederick Patron.

Bruce will always be remembered for his infectious smile, resilient attitude, and compassionate spirit. He will surely be missed and live in the hearts of his family & friends forever more!!
