

Bryant Orlando Bond

November 20, 1962 - July 26, 2016

Bryant Orlando Bond whose life was an outpouring of love and service to his family and friends, was born into this world November 20, 1962. God chose to place his loving arms around him and whispered "come to me" on July 26, 2016.

The youngest of five, he was preceded in death by his mother and father, Barbara & Shirley Bond.

Today we pause, not to grieve the loss, but to thank God for the life of this devoted father, brother, uncle family and friend.

Bryant graduated from Marshall Walker High School in 1981. He served in the U.S Army for four years and was honorably discharged. He volunteered at Third Bethel Church and Little League teams. He enjoyed barbering and traveling. He was a huge support to his his family. His life's joy was making people feel good about themselves.

Bryant leaves fond memories to cherish to his devoted daughters, Jasmine Johnson and Bria Bond as well as his son Imani Bond. Also to cherish his memory are sisters, Yvonne Walker (Bonnie), La Verne Moore (Bernie), brothers, Shurley Bond (Junie), Ronald L. Bond, Sr. grandchildren, Tini`jsia

“ My condolences to the Bond family! May the peace of God that excels all thought guard your hearts and your mental powers by means of Christ Jesus.” (Philippians 4:6, 7) The peace of God “excels all thought.” Therefore, it can stabilize us when we are burdened with distressing emotions.

“ *Praying that his strength and love will shine through to comfort you and your family... And hoping his peace will fill your hearts to guide you in the days ahead. Always keep your brother close to your heart and remembering the good times will bring a smile to your face, even though I know there will be some tears. Our deepest sympathy. “ I will miss my buddy from the VA hospital. Me and became very close November 2014 and remained close. When, we both were released from the hospital, we continued to remain friends. And every time we met at the VA, we shared fried chicken and skittles. Rest in Peace and God Speed, my friend. Chris Payne
