

Burton Robinson Sr.

December 11, 1934 - October 18, 2025

Legacy of Love

Burton Robinson, Sr. was born on December 11, 1934, in Richmond, Virginia, to the late Alberta and Burton Robinson. He is preceded in death by his wife, Rosalie T. Robinson, and a son Bruce Robinson. On October 18, 2025, our beloved husband, father, grandfather, and friend peacefully transitioned from this life.

Burton was raised in the Newtown area of Richmond, where he attended Maggie L. Walker High School, graduating with the Class of 1954.

A man of deep faith and quiet strength, Burton was a devoted and longtime member of St. Elizabeth Catholic Church, where he once served as Treasurer alongside his wife, Rosalie.

On April 23, 1955, he married the love of his life, and together they shared 66 beautiful years of marriage built on love, partnership, and faith.

Burton was also a proud and faithful member of King David Lodge #28 in Richmond, Virginia. He retired from Wonder Bread Bakery after many years of dedicated service, where he was respected for his hard work, consistency, and integrity.

In his leisure, Burton enjoyed cruising and traveling with his beloved wife, spending time with family, and sharing laughs over a good game of Bid Whist with his friends. His calm presence, steady wisdom, and gentle humor were a gift to all who knew him.

He leaves to cherish his memory: his loving children, Satrina Robinson, Sandra D. Horton (Ronald), and Burton Robinson Jr. (Sharon); five grandchildren, including three devoted—SaKeitha Horton, Ronald Horton Jr., and Michael Robinson; five great-grandchildren; three great-great-grandchildren; and a host of extended family members and dear friends who loved him deeply.

Burton's legacy of love, faith, and family devotion will forever live in the hearts of all who were blessed to know him.
