

Byron E Miller

December 15, 1959 - May 2, 2023

Byron Elory Miller departed this life on May 2, 2023. Our hearts truly broke when God prepared him to gently close his eyes and come home to Him. As he was transitioning, he told me he saw a beautiful place and he had a smile on his face. Byron was born on December 15, 1959, to Ruby Miller. He was preceded in death by his sister, Wilma Miller Miles.

He joined Jerusalem Holiness Church at an early age. Later in life, he became a member of First African Baptist Church. He loved his Pastor and his church family. He was a member of the Men's Ministry, Marriage Ministry, Men's Choir, and Security. But most of all he loved being back in the Lord's house.

Byron attended school in the city of Richmond He graduated from George Wythe High School where he was a member of the ROTC Program. He was a proud veteran of the United States Army. He graduated from ECPI with a degree in electronics. He worked in the cable industry for many years until his health started declining. He loved traveling and his job carried him to Korea, Mexico, Venezuela, and many of the states in the United States. He. was a jokester and member of a comedy group called Comedy Spartz.

On May 4, 1996, Byron married the love of his life who was also his best friend, Gloria Penn. They went on to share a wonderful life with family, friends, and his beloved grandchildren. He leaves to cherish his memory his loving wife. Gloria Miller; daughter, Ariel Miller; mother, Ruby Miller Pearson; sons, Michael and George Penn; his beloved grandson, Makao Penn who he referred to as the "boy"; his granddaughters, Brianne, Kaylee, Mikayla, and Tatianna Penn, and Mia Minnis; brothers-in-law, Velton Lewis and Ronald Lewis; sisters-law, Beverly and Joyce Lewis, Brenda Thomas (Steven); his devoted "sister" Diane Easter; devoted cousins, Felicia Bryant, Bishop Olive Brown; and his special friends, Herman and Cheryl Chandler, and a host of other relatives and friends.

“ My sincere condolences to the family and friends of Bryon. My name is Lisa Wells and I worked at Continental Cablevision as Buzz Goodall’s assistant. I used to plan the party’s as one of duties. One party in particular was a lip sync party that was held at the Bus Stop in the Slip downtown and Bryon participated as did I. He was amazing and always had a smile on his face! That’s what I will remember about Bryon. He was a lovely man and God bless his soul. I’m praying for comfort and peace for all of his family and friends. Sincerely, Lisa Wells 🙏🙏🙏
