

Byron Yancy Norman

March 2, 1955 - December 15, 2012

BYRON Y. NORMAN, son of the late Alfred N. and Bessie M. Norman, was born on March 2, 1952 in Baltimore, Maryland. He departed this life on December 15, 2012 after a lengthy illness.

He received his education at Forrest Park High School in Baltimore, Maryland. At the age of thirteen he became employed at Hollins Street Market on the weekends and held a position as a Caddy at Suburban Club Golf Course on a part-time basis while he attended school. Upon completion of his education, he became a full-time employee of Joseph A. Banks and though successful, found that sales was not his forte, left for a position at Social Security Administration, moved into a supervisory position through Broadway Services where he gained numerous government contracts working at Johns Hopkins, Legg Mason and SSA. As a manager and supervisor he was quite loved and respected, with a ready smile and friendly ear, Byron remained a staid presence there for approximately fifteen years.

He married Deborah and was stepfather to her five children, his most beloved was "Al" who preceded him in death. Byron and Al became so much more than stepfather and stepson. Byron was Al's caregiver, his friend, a mentor and a guide. Byron made numerous friends wherever he went and will be sincerely missed by everyone who knew him. He was always a true friend, a confidant, a man of staid presence, and a devoted family man.

He leaves to mourn: his sister, Pamela Y. Drake; brothers, Keith C. Norman and Ronald D. Norman; one brother-in-law, Edward M. Drake; one sister-in-law, Windy C. Norman; nieces, nephews, and a host of other relatives and friends.

“ I am so sorry that you lost your beloved Byron in death. I offer my sincere condolences. At such times words can somehow seem inadequate, but God's promises are everlasting. He inspired the prophet Daniel to write: All those asleep in the ground of dust will wake up. Daniel 12:2, and he inspired the Apostle Paul to write: And I have hope towards God that there is going to be a resurrection of both the righteous and the unrighteous. Acts 24:15. So all those in the memorial tombs will have an opportunity for everlasting life in peaceful conditions. John 5:28,29. May you find strength in God's wonderful promises.
