

Callie Cowans

May 9, 1914 - March 2, 2006

On May 9, 1914, God blessed us with Callie Cowans. She was born to the late Turner and Nancy Buckson in South Carolina. Callie resided in South Carolina until she came to Baltimore, Maryland in 1938 and made it her permanent home. She was a devoted and loving wife to her late husband Cleotis Cowans. Callie work for B & O Railroad. Later in her life she was employed by Mr. & Mrs. Sidney Schlachman as a domestic helper. Callie was a faithful member of Eastside Baptist Church. She has always been a wonderful mother and grandmother to her children and their children's children. Callie was a loving and caring woman to anyone she came in contact with. She loved to attend family reunions and flea markets for the church. Playing cards was one of her favorite activities, and she didn't like to lose. She loved and supported the mentally and physically disabled. She enjoyed cooking especially sweet bread, peach tarts, and egg custard pie for her family. Callie Cowans was tough-minded and had no problems with speaking her mind, even if you didn't like what she said. On her days of vacationing she enjoyed herself in Ocean City, Maryland. On March 2, 2006, God opened his arms and called Callie home to rest. She leaves to mourn: 2 sisters, Maggie and Nancy; 1 brother Junior, 7 children, Bessie Able, Lena James, Willie Graves Jr., Rossetta Owens, Herbert Graves, Minnie Fooks, John Graves; 1 daughter-in-law, 1 son-in-law, 32 grandchildren, and a host of great grandchildren, great-great grandchildren, family and friends whom she loved and adored.

Tribute Wall

“ Callie Cowans

March 25, 2023 at 10:25 AM

“ Callie Cowans

October 13, 2022 at 08:33 AM

“ I wish to express my deepest sympathy to the family of Ms.Cowans. Death was not apart of Jehovah God's arrangement. One day soon the scripture at Acts 24:15 will be fulfilled by means of God's kingdom. May you find comfort in these words as you deal with your loss##imported-begin##K. Smith##imported-end##

July 02, 2010 at 02:21 PM

“ To the family and friends, I offer my sincere sympathy. May you find comfort now and in the days to come from "the Father of tender mercies and the God of all comfort..." who has provided us with the loving resurrection hope noted at John 5:28,29 and Acts 24:15.##imported-begin##Gwen Winston##imported-end##

July 02, 2010 at 02:21 PM

“ My deepest sympathy during your time of sorrow but knows that the God of comfort is with you all during this time of tribulation. (2Corinthian 1:3-4) Due to the many unforeseen occurrences that brings tragedy to our lives Jehovah God promises one day soon Death will be no more (Rev 21:3-4) and his son have been given the authority to bring all those in the memorial tombs back to life. John 5:28-29 What a wonderful prospect for our future.##imported-begin##Carter##imported-end##

---

July 02, 2010 at 02:21 PM