“ I'm sorry for your loss. Death is such a hateful and ugly event. But God's words in the Bible gives us future hope at Isaiah 25:8 where HE promises to wipe away our tears and swallow up death forever. May you find comfort from God's words in the Bible

“ Please accept my condolences for your loss.

The Bible offers a wonderful hope of being reunited with our dead loved ones in a beautiful new world in which there will "be no more death, suffering, crying, or pain."- Revelation 21:3,4 Contemporary English Version

This will be made possible because "There will be a resurrection."- Acts 24:15 New World Translation

May you receive much comfort and strength from this loving hope.

“ To the family of Mr. Calton Doby Sr. Please accept my sincere apologies for the loss of your dear loved one. The Bible says that death is our enemy and it truly is. But we can get comfort from what our God promises us at Revelation 21:4 when it states " And he will wipe out every tear from their eyes, and death will be no more, neither will mourning nor outcry nor pain be anymore. The former things have passed away." And may you continue to receive the comfort you need from your family and friends.

“ My sincere condolences to your family. Death of a loved one is never easy to deal with and our heavenly Father knows this very well. That is why he made this promise in his word the Holy Bible that very soon death will be swallowed up so that we will not experience that pain anymore. This is found your in Bible at Isaiah 25:8. His wonderful son, Jesus Christ not only promised that there will be a resurrection of those that died; (John 5:28, 29) but he also demonstrated it when he ressurected his dear friend Lazarus from death; (John Chapter 11).

I hope that during this difficult time these and other delightful promises from our heavenly Father bring some comfort to your family.
