“ To the family. I would like to extend my deepest sympathy to you at this very difficult time. I know that times like these are very hard to get through, but we don't have to face them alone. 2 Corinthians the 1st chapter, verses 3 and 4 tell us that, "the God of all comfort will comfort us in all of our tribulation." There are many ways that he comforts us, one is through the pages of his word the Bible. At Reverlation 21:4 we find a promise that God will certainly fupill very soon. It reads: "And he will wipe out every tear from their eyes, and death will be no more, neither will mourning nor outcry nor pain be anymore. The former things have passed away." Just imagine for a moment what that means. Death and every feeling of grief, mourning, sorrow, pain, and outcry, will be gone for good. What a wonderful time to look forward to. May you find solace during your time of grief in God's pomises found in his Holy Scriptures.##imported-begin##Sausha S.##imported-end##

“ To the family of Calvin Dukes, I offer my sincere sympathy. It truly is unfortunate that we experience the sorrow associated with the loss of one we love. Rest assured that God purposed for us to live a long eternal life and his purpose has not changed. He offers the resurrection hope (Acts 24:15) for those who have fallen asleep in death and the hope of life everlasting (Rev 21:3,4) for those who exercise faith (John 3:16). May this provide you with comfort now and in the days to come. Please contact me if you would like to discuss this wonderful promise.##imported-begin##Gwen Winston##imported-end##

“ I am very sorry to learn about the death of Calvin. This must have been a difficult time for all of you. I'm forwarding scripture that will comfort you. Psalms 90:10 says that the usual human life span is 70 or 80 years. This was true when Moses wrote it but not so from the beginning. (compare Genesis 5:3-32.) Hebrews 9:27 says...It is reserved for men to die once for all time. This, too, was true when it was written but not the case before God passed judgement on sinful Adam.##imported-begin##JT Nunnally##imported-end##

“ I send my deepest sympathy to the family. Although some months have passed, I know he is still deep in your hearts, because we never forget our loved ones. May you have peace and recieve much strength from the God of all comfort, who comforts us during all of our tribulations. 2nd Cor 1:3,4. One day the pain and sorrow associated with death will be no more, because God has promised that he will end all sickness and death in the near future. rev 21:4. As for the dead, Daniel 12,2 promises that many of those who are asleep in the dust will wake up. As you look forward to this hope, may you find much peace and comfort from the scriptures.##imported-begin##Rita Johnson##imported-end##
