“ I wish to send my warm condolences to the family of Calvin. Losing a loved one in death is truly heartbreaking, and so hard to come to terms with; especially knowing that our loved one is not here to share life with us any longer. I know, and I can sympathize, because my family has lost many loved ones. What comforts us, and I pray will be comforting to you is the hope of the resurrection. Jehovah God has given his son Jesus, all authority to resurrect the dead. John 5:26-29 speaks about this. It says, "For just as the father has life in himself, so he has granted also to the Son to have life in himself. "And he has given him authority to do judging, because Son of man he is. "Do not marvel at this, because the hour is coming in which all those in the memorial tombs will hear his voice and come out, those who did good things to a resurrection of life." One day your Calvin will live again, and you can have the joy of being reunited with him in happy life once again.##imported-begin##R Johnson##imported-end##

“ Dear Family, Please accept my deepest sympathy. At times we may feel lost when someone we love dies. However, bible accounts and God own promises assures us that "all those in the memorial tombs" will be resurrected, John 5:28,29. May you reflect on these promises and find a measure of comfort.##imported-begin##V Adams##imported-end##

“ Dear Zeigler Family, Life is so uncertain. Death can come sometimes suddenly. The pain and hurt you feel needs attention. The bible gives us information about someone who can give us that very attention you need. 1st Corinthians 1: 3-4 tells us about Jehovah "the father of tender mercies and the God who comforts us through all our tribulations". Psalms 55:22 brings out to "throw our burdens upon him and he will sustain you". We can always find comfort in the scriptures John 5: 28-29 gives the hope of a resurrection. Please except these words as some comfort to the family.##imported-begin##Phyllis Duvall##imported-end##

“ To the family. Please accept my deepest condolences for the loss of you dear loved one. At this very difficult time may you find comfort in the beautiful promises recorded in God's word the Bible. At John chapter 5, verses 28 and 29, we read of an event that is very soon to take place. It tells us, "Do not marvel at this, because the hour is coming in which ALL those in the memorial tombs will hear his (Jesus Christ) voice and come out." What a wondrous time that will be. A time when we will have the opportunity to welcome our loved ones back to life, right here on a paradise earth. (Psalm 37:10, 11) May you draw comfort and find hope in your time of mourning from "the God of all comfort, who comforts us in all of our tribulation." (1 Corinthians 1:3, 4)##imported-begin##Sausha S.##imported-end##

“ I would like to offer my sincere condolences for your loss. Although death happens often it is not something anyone can adjust. The Bible offers hope and encouragement. The record at John 11:38-44 shows how Jesus ressurected his friend Lazarus from the dead and brought him back to life on earth. What a wonderful prospect to know that Jesus will resurrect our loved ones soon like he did his friend Lazarus.##imported-begin##Yolanda F.##imported-end##

“ I am sorry to learn about the death of Calvin. This must have been a very difficult time for all of you. I'm forwarding scripture that will comfort you. Psalms 90:10 says that the usual human life span is 70 or 80 years. This was true when Moses wrote it but not so from the beginning. (compare Genesis 5:3-32.) Hebrews 9:27 says...It is reserved for men to die once for all time. This, too, was true when it was written but not the case before God passed judgement on sinful Adam.##imported-begin##JT Nunnally##imported-end##
