

Calvin Green

August 31, 1939 - November 14, 2003

Calvin Green (known to family and friends as Hubby) was born on August 31, 1939 in Crewe, Virginia to the late Mamie Hopsom and William Green. He was educated in the public school system of Nottoway County, Virginia, and was a graduate of the "Class of 1957" at Luther H. Foster High School. Also at an early age he was baptized at Eleven Oaks Baptist Church in Crewe, Virginia, under the leadership of the late Reverend L.W. Bass. Upon graduation, Calvin moved to Baltimore, Maryland where he became employed with Food Fair Stores and later Bethlehem Steel Shipyard from which he retired in 1987. On May 30, 1960, he was joined in holy matrimony to Pearl Marie Fitzgerald. To this union a son and daughter were born: Calvin Green Jr. and Deborah Green. Calvin a devoted husband and father, bore his illness with patience and fortitude. He leaves to cherish his memory: his very devoted wife of forty-three years, Pearl M. Green; daughter, Deborah Green and son, Calvin Green, Jr., of Baltimore, Maryland; mother-and father-in-law, Pearl Sledge of Baltimore, Maryland and Samuel Fitzgerald of Victoria, Virginia; sister and brother, Dorothy Foster Lawrence Green, of Baltimore, Maryland; sister-and brother-in-law, Barbara Green and Lee Foster, of Baltimore, Maryland; and a host of nieces/great nieces, nephews/great nephews, cousins and friends.
