

Calvin K. Johnson

October 21, 1962 - August 11, 2015

CALVIN KERRY JOHNSON, son of Lillian R. Johnson and the late Calvin W. Johnson, was born October 21, 1962 in Baltimore, Maryland. He attended Southwestern High School in Baltimore, Maryland. Calvin was a former employee of the Downtown Partnership of Baltimore. Calvin accepted Christ as his personal savior in September of 2009 at the Love Fellowship Christian Center in Belcamp, Maryland. On August 8, 2015, Calvin rededicated his life back to the Lord after he heard the Sinner's Prayer read from Romans 10, verses 9-10. He sincerely loved his family and children. He was a funny practical joker who never failed to liven up the crowd. He had a caring heart, loved people and enjoyed watching movies in his spare time. Without a doubt, he was a great cook and would make some of the best dishes! Overall, he was supportive and helped anyone who requested his assistance. He was well known and loved by so many. He will definitely be missed by his family, children, and everyone who knew him. He is survived by: his mother, Lillian Rose Johnson; five children, Ciera Walker, Calvin Johnson, LaShea Johnson, Tanaja Branch and Bishop Branch; one son-in-law, Kevin Walker; two grandchildren, Mason Johnson and Avah Walker; four brothers, Marlon, Kenneth, Kirk and Keith Johnson; three sisters-in-law, Glenda Johnson, Janice-Jones Johnson and Angela Speck, and a host of nieces, nephews, relatives and friends.

“ Calvin, My brother, my friend. Thank you for who you were in my life. When I was going thru, I could call you and you would be right there. You were truly your brothers and sisters keeper. You will be missed. I will miss you calling saying sis I just made a big breakfast. And going back and forth if you not going to bring me any I don't want to hear about it. So you send me pics. Lol. My proudest moment was when I saw how the kids loved you because you were just being you. I will miss you. Love you New Jack City.
