

Calvin L. Murray

August 4, 1917 - January 1, 2006

CALVIN MURRAY was born August 4, 1917 in Cowpen, South Carolina to the late Horace and Ira Murray. Calvin received his education in South Carolina. He came to Baltimore and began working at the shipyard and the steel factory until he retired in 1982. He was a member of the formally known Men's Club on Pennsylvania Avenue. Calvin often reminisced of the days when he played baseball at the stadium. He called them his glory days. In his later years he enjoyed taking long walks and traveling around the city daily on the MTA until life dealt him an unexpected blow causing him to slow his pace. This gave him the chance to notice Patricia Mack who became a wonderful companion to him. Calvin departed this life after a short illness. He leaves to mourn: his brother and sister-in-law, James and Geraldine Murray; his sister and brother-in-law, Nira and Charles Robinson; and a host of nieces, nephews and a deeply appreciated second family, The Wards.

“ My deepest sympathy during your time of sorrow but know that the God of comfort is with you all during this time of tribulation. (2Corinthian 1:3-4) Due to the many unforeseen occurrences that brings tragedy to our lives Jehovah God promises one day soon Death will be no more (Rev 21:3-4) and his son have been given the authority to bring all those in the memorial tombs back to life. John 5:28-29 Just think there will come a time not only will death be no more but Jehovah promises that no one will have to say I'm sick according to Isaiah 33:24. I feel the need to express these words of hope because so many of us today treasure the gift of life and we do all we can to maintain it to hold on to it. That is why it hurts so badly when our loved ones die. With so many of us desiring life today no matter how good or bad it is we still want life here on earth. No one looks forward to that time of death. That is why I am under obligation by the spirit and love of God to share that hope that is in our near future that the righteous shall inherit the earth and reside upon it forever according to Psalms 37: 29 along with the above stated promises on a paradise and peaceful earth. We all can hold true to this everlasting promise because Isaiah 55:11 states all the words Jehovah have spoken WILL NOT RETURN WITHOUT RESULTS. What a wonderful prospect for our future especially enlight of the fact that Hebrews 6:18 States of God, it is IMPOSSIBLE for him to lie.##imported-begin##Carter##imported-end##
