

Calvin McDaniel

August 6, 1949 - June 9, 2003

Calvin "Mack" McDaniel, son of Jannette Whitaker and the late James Whitaker, was born on August 6, 1949 in Enfield, North Carolina. He departed this life on June 9, 2003. Mack was a self employed contractor. He was a veteran of the Vietnam War, where he voluntarily joined at a very young age. He was a kind person with a heart of gold. He always went out of his way to help anyone he could. Mack was full of life, a very humorous person who did his best to make everyone smile where ever he went. He leaves to cherish his memory: a wife, Carolyn Dodson McDaniel; one son, Calvin Stackhouse; one stepdaughter, Tabitha Dodson; mother, Jannette Whitaker; two sisters, Cleo McDaniel and Katie Dancy-Mayers; one brother, Thomas McDaniel; parents-in-law; six sisters-in-law, three brothers-in-law; nieces, nephews, and a host of other relatives and friends.

“ Carolyn, I love you dearly and just know that there are still great things in store for your life. I am sorry that this stepping stone over a loss so dear to you had to slow you down from gaining the blessings that you will receive for being such a great person. With the deepest sympathy and love sent your way, Sabrina##imported-begin##Sabrina Brandon##imported-end##

“ Carolyn, words cannot express the sorrow and grief we all feel in our hearts for your loss. I believe it would be safe to say we all feel like we all have lost a piece of ourselves when we lost Mack. We all loved Mack and adored his wonderful sense of humor. No one could ever replace "Our Mack". Mack was one of a kind, always kidding around and making everyone laugh. We know that it will be hard but the memories and love you have will last a lifetime. I have been reminiscing over the wonderful times you, Mac and we all have had together in the past. Those times make me smile and makes the pain a little bit easier. Always hold on to those great memories and when times seem unbearable just keep the faith that God will bring you thru these dark times into a brighter day. Always remember how much we all love you and will always be there for you whenever you need us. Love your sister & Friend, Faye###imported-begin###Faye Brandon & Family###imported-end##

“ With heart-filled sadness, I extend to you, Calvin's family, my sympathy in his passing. I came to know Calvin many, years ago, through my brother-in-law, and Calvin's "army buddy" Johnny. I wanted to just take this time and offer my condolences and hope that you know that my thoughts and prayers are with you during your loss. Your loss maybe a void, but, cherish your memories of Calvin - they are forever. Respectfully, Betty###imported-begin###Betty Jones###imported-end##
