“ My deepest sympathy to Calvin's family. So glad I saw him and took a photo last summer at a cookout, had not seen him in over 40 years. He was still so easy going and funny. We promised to catch some baseball games when I was next in Maryland. RIP my friend.

“ Great friend for over 50 years. None better ... and less than a handful his equal. My world will be lesser without you ... but fuller for the many memories ... 36th Street neighbors ... sandlot football at Collins Stadium ... Salvation Army Boys Club Basketball ... Armstrong H.S. Graduates ('77) ... Uncle's to our children ... great Atl vacations ... Countless number of great conversations ... You will be missed ... But never forgotten ... God Bless until we meet again ... Love You ...
