

Calvin Christopher Smith

December 18, 1966 - June 2, 2016

CALVIN SMITH was born in Baltimore, MD on December 18, 1966 to Mary and Arthur Lee Smith. He transitioned from his earthly life on June 2, 2016. His journey began in Baltimore where he attended Baltimore City Public School and graduated from Walbrook High School.

During his life journey, Calvin worked for several years as a short order cook and other jobs like Martin's West, Motel 6, and Under Armor. He loved to make a dollar so he hustled with friends (Danny) Abdul & Chuck. He bumped into trouble many times in his life and that ended with him being incarcerated where he became a Muslim. He changed his name to (Kareem Abdul). He learned how to read and write Arabic and enjoyed teaching others what he'd learned.

He enjoyed music and watching basketball. In 1995, he met his wife, Beverly and the two were married in 2004. Calvin was a wonderful friend, cousin, uncle, nephew, brother, son, step-dad, grandfather, and husband. He will truly be missed and remembered.

His legacy of love continues with: his mother, Mary Smith; father, Arthur Lee Smith; wife, Beverly Harmon-Smith; sisters, Sandra, Debbie and Jane; brother, Lee; three brothers-in-law, Kelly, Marlowe and Alexander Harmon; aunts, Lisa Davis, Evelyn Watson, Pearl Walden, Ernestine and Alice

Harrison; uncles, Marcellus Hester and Eugene Hesster; step-daughter, Chanel; grandson, Jaden; nine nieces and nephews, four close friends that we know of, Abdul, Chuck, Corey and Robert (Bo); along with a host of other relatives, family and special friends, particularly the “Howard Park” and “Poplar Grove” community.

“ Calvin. Was my step- dad my grandmother, brother, mother and myself has loved this man since i was 13. Over 23 years. We have been a family and we all ran around for this funeral. I did the Obituary. And. I did it with love my mother was disrespected by this whole family and i don't appreciate it. She loved him unconditional and over the years some respect. Should have been gained for my mother.
