

Calvin T. Wilson

July 6, 1941 - April 28, 2009

Calvin Thomas Wilson, Sr., son of the late Mildred Summerville-Wilson and Melvin Wilson was born on July 6, 1941 in Baltimore, MD. . On April 28, 2009, after a lengthy illness, God called his child home to Glory. Calvin received his education in the Baltimore City Public School System and graduated from Carver High School. He was baptized at an early age and received Jesus Christ as his Lord and Savior. In January of 1965, he married Joan R. Starkes (who preceded him in death), out of this union came three beautiful children. He was devoted husband, father, grandfather, uncle, brother and friend. Calvin was employed at Johns Hopkins Laundry for 10 years then was promoted to Maryland Hospital Laundry as a supervisor for 26 years. After the business closed, he worked for Genesis for 4 years and his last employer was the Rite Aid Warehouse, where he worked for 7 years. Calvin was affectionately known as Nicodemus. He had a genuine passion for others and would go beyond the call of duty to share his love; not only for his family, but also for his extended family and friends. Everyone was touched by his presence. His hobbies included listening to music (especially gospel), watching wrestling and old western movies. He was also a passionate Ravens Fan. The Temptations and the The Four Tops were his favorite singing groups. You could often hear him saying, "Oh go head" or "There it is." He leaves to mourn; one daughter, Chasel (Tammy) and husband Leonard Sr., two sons, Larry (Pineapple) and wife, Rosalind and Calvin, Jr. (Bunk) and Cheryl; five grandchildren, Brittany Wilson, Juan Wilson, Bijan Wilson, Leonard Chase, Jr. and TaNard Chase; four sisters, Audrey Wilson, Loretta Wilson and husband George, Mildred Wilson and Odessa Wilson; one brother Howard (Skip) Summerville (two brothers preceded him in death, Melvin and Louis Wilson); one sister-in-law, Hannah Smith (Dodie) a devoted niece, Angie, caretaker and in-law Cliffordtine Chase; a devoted friend, Katherine Jones and daughter Gloria as well as a host of other nieces, nephews and relatives.
