

Calvin Thomas Thompson

March 25, 1966 - October 4, 2002

Calvin Thomas Thompson was born March 25, 1966 to Janice Curtis Thompson and Calvin R. Thompson. From the age of seven until he suddenly departed this life after complications from Diabetes on October 4, 2002, Calvin was raised by devoted parents Janice Curtis Greene and Paris Wendell Greene, whom he affectionately called Daddy. Calvin accepted Christ at an early age. He was baptized at St. Alphonsus Roman Catholic Church and received his First Holy Communion at St. Pius V. Calvin was confirmed at the New All Saints Roman Catholic church where he was a member. Calvin was educated in Baltimore County Public Schools and graduated from Baltimore Polytechnic Institute, where he played trumpet in Poly's Marching Band. He also attended Morgan State University. Calvin was employed at Comcast Cable as a Service Representative until his health began to fail. He also served in the 229th Medical Service Branch of the United States, Maryland Army National Guard and was proud of the many commendations he received. Calvin was a fun-loving person who enjoyed making people laugh. He had a variety of interests and successes. Calvin was a self-taught computer graphic artist and a composer and engineer of background instrumental tapes and CD's. He won several trophies for his martial art skills briefly hosted a Christian radio program for which he received an award. Calvin had an engaging personality. To know him was to love him. Calvin leaves to cherish his memory, his loving parents, Paris and Janice Greene and Calvin Thompson; two devoted brothers, Barry R. Thompson and Aaron

R. Greene; his grandmother, Annie Ross Thompson; his twin cousin, Cheryl L. Bedford of Los Angeles, California; five aunts, five uncles, fifteen cousins and a host of other relatives and friends. "Naked I came from my mother's womb and naked shall I go back again. The Lord gave and the Lord has taken away; blessed be the name of the Lord." Job 1:21
