

Calvin Anthony Tyler

December 3, 1960 - January 8, 2015

CALVIN A. TYLER, son of Calvin and Ernestine Tyler, was born on December 3, 1960 in Baltimore, Maryland. He departed this life on January 8, 2015.

At the age of ten, Calvin moved with his parents and younger brother Kevin to Houston, Texas. This was followed by moves to Omaha, Nebraska and Denville, New Jersey where Calvin graduated from Morris Knolls High School. After attending Morris County Community College for two years, Calvin enlisted in the United States Navy, where he served honorably for four years. After his Navy Service, he resided in Philadelphia, PA and finally Wildwood, New Jersey.

Calvin made numerous friends wherever he went and will be sincerely missed by everyone who knew him. He was always a loving person and true friend.

He leaves to mourn: his mother, Ernestine F. Tyler; father, Calvin E. Tyler, Jr.; grandmother, Mary Walston; grandfather, Calvin E. Tyler, Sr.; uncles, Robert and Reginald Tyler; brother, Kevin D. Tyler; niece, Kendall Tyler; nephew, John Calvin Tyler; and a host of other relatives and friends.

“ Couldn't understand back in 1966 or 67 how it was possible to move so far away. That was the last I saw of my buddy until recently when our kindergarten class picture surfaced on Facebook. I just received word of his passing while out to dinner and could not wait to get home to cry. I missed my buddy then and now nearly 50 yrs. later not having heard anything from him I still feel a deep loss of a genuine friend. R.I.P.

“ Dear Calvin & Tina,
Please accept our sympathy on the passing of your son, Calvin Jr.
May your memories of him serve as a blessing for you and your family.

Please allow us to share an old poem, "At End" by Louise Chandler, that reminds us that, as long as love stays alive, nothing can truly die. It goes like this:

"At end of Love, at end of Life, At end of Hope, at end of Strife, At end of all we cling to so - The sun is setting - must we go? At dawn of Love, at dawn of Life, At dawn of Peace that follows Strife, At dawn of all we long go for so - The sun is rising - let us go."

Yes, Calvin Jr. has gone before us. But he lives in our love - in our hearts. And we know that, someday, the dawn will break, the sun will rise, and we will all be together again.

Sincerely,
Dozier & Sandra

“ I want to send my deepest condolences to the family and even though I never met Calvin, I have met this father and feel horrible about the grief that he and his family are going through. As I knew his father as a very kind and friendly man I am sure the apple did not fall far from the tree. Again my deepest condolences for the loss of the son and the man.

“ Dear Mr. and Mrs. Tyler and family,

My family and I are so sorry for your loss. I can't imagine your grief. Please know that Calvin was loved by his many friends because he was a good man. Through our many conversations Calvin and I had, I'm sure the good man he became, in no small part, was due to the love you have for your son and the values you instilled in him.

Each one of our lives are touched by the people we meet. Calvin left warmth, kindness and love wherever he went, and touched many along his journey. He made me feel like an old friend from the first time we met. He never failed to ask me how my daughter and the rest of my family were doing. Calvin was always a good listener. I was also impressed with how much he loved being a Vet.

Calvin will be remembered for many things, but, I believe he will mostly be remembered for the beautiful force of his spirit and love of he family and friends.

May our Lord have his arms around the Tyler family during their time of grief, and always, as He walks Calvin home.

With heartfelt condolences...Aggie and Family

“ I meet Calvin almost 9 years ago. Calvin and I had become best friends thru the years. If you were lucky enough to know him it was a privilege because a friend like Calvin is really hard to find in this world now a days. He was true inside an out you could trust him with anything if you were having a bad day an needed to talk to someone Calvin would listen to you. An if you needed a hug he was right there with his arm's open. Calvin could make you laugh no matter how bad of a day you were having. Calvin I love you and I am going to miss you so much. RIP Calvin till we meet again my dearest friend.

“ When I first met Calvin, we worked together, became friends and remained friends. I cannot imagine his mothers grief at this time. She raised a wonderful son, who was loved by many. He had a smile that lit even the darkest day. When he hugged you hello or see you later, you knew it was genuine. Nothing fake about Cal, what you saw was what you got. Will miss you Calvin, see you later.

Yes, Luann met Calvin when my brother, Johnny Coyle, introduced us so may years ago about 25 years. When they moved to Wildwood, Nj they lived with me for 3 months, When my grandchild was born John and Calvin both spoiled her so much. When my granddaughter, Briana heard Calvin died shes aid she wished she could have seen him just one more time. This is a 17 year old would loved him like an Uncle. I will miss you friend, but I know that you are now with Johnny and your grandmom too. RIP, and to his mom let God help you through this time.

“ Calvin Calvin Calvin what does one say about Calvin well there would not be enough room in the entire universe to hold all of the amazing words thoughts and memories to describe this man but if there were only 3 words I could choose from they would be courageous beautiful and enlightening.
his moral fortitude was stellar his bravery to live his own life was worthy of Nobel award and his loyal and dedication to his friends and family was his biggest and his trade mark.
Calvin had and honesty and inner peace and an truth about his life that he lived every single day without waiverig. This man he leaves behind a great legacy and value of which very few men have the ability to match.
God bless you my friend I love you cherish you and I look forward to the day when we meet again

“ What a caring, generous, laughter-filled soul has been lost! Cal had a soft heart always there to hug hello, listen to the story of someone's day, share a meal with a small group of friends. And he always had many. He learned to cook quite well. He trusted too easily and was loyal to a fault. So many nights chatting on the porch until dawn, ahh, they'll not be as sweet this summer.

“ Calvin and Tina,

I know that words cannot heal the pain of losing someone so dear. However, I offer my deepest condolences on the loss of your son, Calvin. Let your most cherished memories sustain and bring you comfort during this difficult time. Then hold tight to those memories, lean on your multitude of friends for strength, and always remember how much you are cared about. I am here for you when you need me and I pray God gives you the strength to overcome the pain. Know this ... The LORD is close to the brokenhearted and saves those who are crushed in spirit. -Psalm 34:18

“ Although I haven't seen Calvin in numerous years, I assured that he is at peace. My foundest memory of Calvin is when the Tyler family lived in New Jersey and my family would visit their home. One particular memory is when Calvin taught me how to play poker. As a young child, I thought it was the coolest thing that he took time to teach me a silly game. In my heart of heart I knew that he allowed me to win as we laughed and joked for hours. In retrospect in times like these you learn to appreciate the memories and hold on to the positive. I pray that the Tyler family remembers the joyous times together and celebrate his life.
