

Calvin Nathaniel Warren

August 7, 1950 - October 17, 2015

After bravely battling lung cancer, Calvin Nathaniel “Bones” Warren entered his eternal rest at home surrounded by loved ones on October 17, 2015. He leaves behind his loving wife of 32 years, Sheila Johnson-Warren.

Calvin was born on August 7, 1950 to the late John and Helen Warren in Richmond, Virginia. He grew up in a large, loving family with nine siblings. Calvin received his education through Richmond City Public Schools.

He was baptized at Dill Road Church of Christ in Richmond, Virginia. Calvin enjoyed music, traveling socializing with family and friends, and was a diehard Washington Redskins fan!

He was employed by various companies over the past 50 years which included Henrico Doctors’ Hospital and Cedarwood Manor Apartments. He recently retired in September 2015 from Bon Secours Memorial Regional Medical Center as a loyal employee of 15 years. Calvin was commended for alerting medical staff of a potentially harmful occurrence of an infant...known as a “Memorable Minute”. This led to Calvin being commonly known as “The Mayor of Bon Secours”.

He leaves to cherish his memories to his loving and devoted wife, Shelia, Johnson-Warren; son, Marcelus Johnson; two daughters, Tamara Johnson

Mann (Aaron) and Shanita Johnson; two grandchildren, Rashawri Johnson and Samuel Mann; two brothers, Reginald Warren and Melvin Thomas; sister, Carolyn Robinson; dedicated in-laws, Betty and Elmo Mann; four sisters-in-law, Paulette Crowder, Paula Hilliard (Fred), Cassandra Johnson and Andrea Rustin; and a host of nieces, nephews, cousins and a multitude of special friends.

“Weeping may endure for a night,
but joy comes in the morning.”

Psalm 30:5
