“ I would like to send my condolences to the family. When someone we love dies its very painful. But the Bible talks about God doing away with pain at Rev 21:4. May the God of comfort provide solace to your family at this time.

“ *Please know that you are not alone when facing such a challenge as death. My deepest condolences to the family of Camelle Baker. My heart certainly goes out to you in this, your severe time of need. We all desire good health and a long life for ourselves and our families. We long to live in a world where pain, suffering and death will be things of the past. The fulfillment of his purpose is described at Revelation 21:3-5. "God will wipe out every tear from their eyes" (Revelation 21:4) What kind of tears will he wipe out? Neither tears of joy nor tears that protect our eyes. God's promise is referring to tears caused by suffering and sorrow. God will not merely dry off such tears; he will wipe them out completely by removing the cause of unwanted tears - suffering and sorrow. "Death will be no more." (Revelation 21:4) What has caused more unwanted tears that the enemy death?
"Neither will pain be anymore.." (Revelation 21:4) Mental, emotional, physical pain that has resulted from sin and imperfection and made life miserable for countless millions will be no more.*
