

Camilla I. Fisher

December 27, 1945 - January 15, 2002

Camilla I. Fisher, daughter of Camilla Young and Paul Baytop, was born in Baltimore, Maryland. She departed this life on January 15, 2002 after a lengthy illness. She received her education in the Baltimore City Public Schools. After graduating, she became a Nursing Assistant. Upon completion of her education she became a full-time employee at Catonsville Eldercare Nursing and Rehabilitation Center. She worked there for ten years. She was a lifelong member of Huber Memorial Church. She married Warren Fisher in 1965. She made numerous friends wherever her presence was known, always keeping people smiling and laughing at all times. She leaves to mourn: her mother, Camilla Young, and father, Paul Baytop; husband Warren Fisher; one daughter, Paulette Smith of Baltimore; a granddaughter, Andrea; a grandson, Gerrett; two brothers, Paul A. Baytop of Washington, DC and Cornell Baytop of Baltimore; one sister, Candy McClaine and brother-in-law, Marshall McClaine of Edgewood, Maryland (preceding her in death was one sister Sonora A. Baytop). She is also survived by a niece, Loita Davis, great niece, Teanna Price; a longtime friend, Mr. Roy Davis; a host of other relatives and friends.
