“ It's been a little over 5 months and I still can't believe my favorite cousin is gone... That last day December 16th we spent most of the day together... So I can that I am blessed that I did get to spend that time with you! Guess it makes it easier! But every time I walk in grandma door or see your mom pull up, I will always expect to see you knocked out in the passenger seat or smiling watching me run down the ramp to come get you out of the seat!

Can never explain our bond or how much I miss you!

*Love you so much Can-Can

“ Dear Rosel Family,

Please accept my deepest sympathy for the loss of your dear daughter, Candace. My heart goes out to you and I can only imagine the pain of loss that you are feeling. According to the Holy Scriptures, we were not meant to die (Ecclesiastes 3:11). So our Creator, Jehovah God, is also saddened by your loss, and He promises that under his direction, He will restore back to us our loved ones who have died, and completely do away with pain (of loss), suffering and death forever! (John 5:28, 29 and Revelation 21:4). May you hold these beautiful promises close to your heart, alongside the precious memories of your dear Candace.

“ To the Rosel family & friends, It is heartbreaking when we loose a loved one but it is so much more difficult to cope with when someone so young falls asleep in death. May find solace is John5:28-29 the promises that those who have died will be restored to perfect life in a paradise earth (Psalm37:10-11). Continue to pray for strength and look to God's word for comfort and hope. With heartfelt sympathy.

“ These are times that really try us. My deepest condolences to the family of Candace. My daughter's name is Candace; I cannot even begin to imagine losing her to death at such an early age! This is way too soon! The Bible does tell us at Revelation 21:4 - "And he will wipe out every tear from their eyes, and death will be no more, neither will mourning nor outcry nor pain anymore. The former things have passed away." The tears mentioned here are referring to the things (such as death) that cause us pain and suffering. Again, I am so sorry to learn of your loss.

“ Our heartfelt condolences to the family. When someone special falls asleep in death, it is very hard to let go of the fact that they are no longer with us. We will miss holding them in our arms again and hear their laughter or see their smiles again. Our God, Jehovah, offers a future hope for our loved ones, which will help ease our feelings of loss today. May the coming days bring you comfort and peace (Isaiah 26:19).

“ To the family of Candace M Rosel. I am sorry to read about the loss of your loved one. The pain is tremendous even with the passage of time. There are scriptures in the Bible to help provide relief of grief and distress. Please read Ps 65:2 that talks about “The Hearer of prayers, people of all flesh will come.
