“ Please accept my sincere sympathy for the loss of your loved one. Our family members are so important to us, and when we lose one the pain can truly be overwhelming. I know, because I have also lost many loved ones over the years. What helps me to cope is knowing that one day soon I will see them again. Keep this very comforting scripture in mind found at John 5:28,29 which says, "Donot marvel at this, because the hour is coming in which all those in the memorial tombs will hear his (Jesus"s) voice and come out; those who did good things to a ressurection of life." May the hope of seeing Candice again bring joy to your hearts and help you to cope in the days ahead.##imported-begin##R Johnson##imported-end##

“ I would like to offer my condolences to Ms. Fullwood's family. The loss of a loved one can be painful, that's why the Bible calls death an "enemy." But, please be assured that God promises to do away with that enemy and all the pain it causes, according to 1Corinthians 15:26 and Revelation 21:4. Also, Daniel 12:2 states,"many asleep in the ground of dust will wake up." These are the promises of God, who cannot lie.-Titus 1:2. Continue to find comfort in the Bible.##imported-begin##Valerie Johnson##imported-end##

“ Death is something that we will never get use to because God's Word refers to it as 'the last enemy'. May you find comfort in knowing that our loving Heavenly Father Jehovah promises us that very soon, he will by means of his son Jesus Christ, bring our 'enemy to nothing' (1Corinthians 15:26). What a wonderful day that will be!###imported-begin##Kevin Jackson###imported-end##
