“ Please accept my sincere condolences for the loss of Baby Canyan. At 1 Corinthians 15:26 the Bible calls death our "last enemy" and it tells us that death will be "destroyed." There is hope of our dead loved ones returning to life with no more death, sickness, sorrow or pain. (Revelation 21:4) Acts 24:15 affirms that "there is going to be a resurrection." Psalm 68:20 assures us: "The true God is for us a God saving acts; and to Jehovah the Sovereign Lord belong the ways out from death." May you receive much comfort and hope from friends, family and the loving promises found in the Bible.##imported-begin##Sharon Hill##imported-end##

“ My family and I offer our deepest sympathy to Baby Canyon's family and friends. As you draw comfort from your precious memories, remember the One who is the source of life has given us a source of comfort doing times like these. The hope of the resurrection mentioned at Acts 24:15. We can find comfort in this hope because Hebrews 6:18 tells us it is impossible for God to lie. Let him be your source of comfort.##imported-begin##Gwen Winston##imported-end##

“ I would like to express my sympathy in the loss of your son. Please take comfort in the promises of Jehovah God that he will soon swallow up death at Isa. 25:8 and at Rev 21:4 where he promises that soon death will be no more. You can look to the future with hope also because he promises that there will be a resurrection at John 5: 28,29. May these scriptures provide comfort at this difficult time.##imported-begin##T. “ I am so sorry that you lost your precious baby Canyon. I know this is a hard blow to the family, especially to the parents. But know this, that it was never Jehovah's purpose for people to get sick or die. he views death as our enemy, and promises that soon he will destroy this enemy for all time. 1st Cor:15,26. When his kingdom takes over rulership of the earth, then true peace will come to all obedient people, and there will be no more hunger, homelessness, poverty, violence, crime war, or death of any kind. This was never God's purpose; especially for a baby to die and leave grief-stricken parents. He desires all of us to be happy and in peace. Soon his wonderful purpose will be realized, and then all those in the memorial tombs including your precious child will hear the voice of Jesus and come out of those tombs. John 5:28,29. May the scriptures, and the faithful promises of Jehovah be a source of comfort and strength to you in the days ahead.##imported-begin##rita johnson##imported-end##
