

Cardova E. Wright

February 9, 1927 - January 18, 2023

A Life Well Lived

A Time to be born and Educated Cardova Ethel Blake Wright, daughter of the late Shirley Blake and Lucy P. Ransom, was born on February 9, 1927, in Baltimore, Maryland. She began her formal education in the Baltimore public school system and completed her school education a GED certificate

A Time to Love

Cardova, was affectionately called “Nannie” and “Nay” but she preferred “Mrs. Wright” Mrs. Wright was married to the late Henderson Wright on November 8, 1952. Mr. Wright was a merchant seaman which allowed them to travel and experience various cultures all over the world. From the holy unio, no biological children were born. But God saw fit for them to nurture and parent their bonus children: Thomas, Frank, Paula. Cardora raised her children in a Christian in a Christian and loving home. The joys of her life were her grandchildren, and great grandchildren, and great-great grandchildren. As much as she loved her family, she truly loved the Lord more.

A Time to Worship

Cardova accepted the Lord as her personal Savior early in life and was baptized at Eastern United Methodist Church on September 19, 1958, under the pastorate of the late Reverend Calvin P. Crosson. She was active in Sunday School and served on the Evangelism Committee, the Golden Links, the Senior Ministry, the Usher Board, holding various leadership positions, and Women Society of Christian Service (now known as the United Women in Faith). Cardova was an active member of a church until her health began to fail. During her life struggles, she was faithful to rely on the word of God and her favorite scripture, 23rd Psalm, A Psalm of David.

A Time to Work

Cardova worked outside of the home and began her career as a factory worker, making men's suits. She then changed careers and began working at the Noxell Corporation, a Proctor and Gamble subsidiary, where she retired after many years of dedicated service. Cardova, not content to just be home idle, began working as a home health aide. She ended her employment to care for Henry, as she lovingly called her husband, due to his health issues. After her husband's death, Cardova remained active in her community and her Christian faith. She enjoyed completing crossword puzzles, going to casinos and making floral centerpieces for family and friends. Cardova also enjoyed national and international traveling, entertaining in her home, and line dancing at the Center.

A Time to go Home

After a lengthy illness and surrounded by Linnette, Paula, and Butchie, Cardova quietly accepted her Heavenly Father's call and entered into eternal rest on January 18, 2023. She was 95 years old.

She leaves to cherish her memories of a life well lived; her loving daughter, Paula; one son-in-law, Lawrence (Butchie); her brother, Shirley Blake; her oldest niece, Elizabeth Allen; one sister-in-law; one brother-in-law; grandchildren, great grandchildren, great-great grandchildren; a host of nieces, nephews, a goddaughter, and many dear relatives and friends, especially her dearest friend, Tena Giles. Cardova was preceded in death by two sons; Thomas Jones and Frank Bynum; one brother, Frank Blake; two sister Elizabeth Blake and Louise Blake; a special friend, Book Weaver and dear friend , Eva Walters.

Cemetery Details

Loudon Park Cemetery

3801 Frederick Ave
Baltimore, MD 21229

Previous Events

Wake

JAN 28. 10:00 AM - 11:00 AM (ET)

Eastern United Methodist
5315 Hartford rd
Baltimore, MD

Service

JAN 28. 11:00 AM (ET)

Eastern United Methodist
5315 Hartford rd
Baltimore, MD

Tribute Wall

PD

“ I am truly saddened to hear of your loss. Mrs Wright was a Blessed and beautiful woman of God. She always greeted us with a smile and a hug. She will be truly missed by all who knew her. You have our deepest Sympathy.

---

Pamela Davis - January 27, 2023 at 11:59 AM

“ We the March Family and Staff wish to extend our deepest and heartfelt sympathy in the passing of your loved one. Our prayers go out to you and your family in your time of loss. We know and understand that you have received many expressions of love and we will continue to lift you up in prayer. May the memories you cherish of brighter and happier days help to ease your sorrow and comfort you always.

---

March Funeral Homes - January 20, 2023 at 10:21 AM