

Carl A. Coates

September 27, 1955 - February 26, 2014

CARL ANTHONY "TONY" COATES, son of Edward R. and Anna Coates, Sr., was born on September 27, 1955 in Baltimore, Maryland. He departed this life on February 26, 2014. Tony was the fourth of nine children. He was educated in the Baltimore City Public School System, graduating from Calverton Educational Center. Upon graduating from high school, he became a driver for Fairfield Medical Center. He then pursued a career with the Housing Authority of Baltimore City as a maintenance man. Tony was an avid lover of classic movies and westerns. He was good to his neighbors, parents and sisters. You could find Tony doing lawn care, assisting his cousin Jack with his moving and hauling business from time to time, and chauffeuring his parents and sisters around. He also had a sweet tooth and he loved drinking Pepsi. He leaves to celebrate his life: his parents, Edward R. and Anna Coates; two sons, Carl Coates and Darnell Coates; three sisters, Deborah Coates, Angela (Alan Lloyd) Lloyd and Carol (Thurman Zollicoffer, Jr.) Zollicoffer; one brother, Larry Coates (three brothers and one sister preceded him in death, Richard, Edward Jr., William and Linda Coates-Wooden); four nieces, Shawnta Stevenson, Antoinette Coates, Shaneequah Coates and Victoria Wooden; three nephews, William T. Coates, Michael Taylor (Monique Taylor) and Thurman Zollicoffer III; a great niece, Jada Coates; a great nephew, Isaiah Taylor; and a host of other relatives and friends.

TEARS If tears could be a stairwell and memories were a lane, We would walk right up to Heaven and bring you home again. No farewell words were spoken, no time to say goodbye, You were gone before we knew it and only God knows why. Our heart still aches in sadness and in secret tears still flow,

What it means to lose you, no one will ever know.

“ Please accept my sincere condolences for your loss. Death is the enemy of all mankind, yet when it touches us personally, few find the comfort they search for. The doctrines that are taught concerning death find their origins from men and not the Bible. As a result, they fail to leave those who are grieving with comfort or a hope. They do however, leave many with unanswered questions. The response that "God works in mysterious ways" or that "God needed another angel", does not satisfy the spiritual needs of those who are grieving. However, many have found comfort in the pages of God's word the Bible (2 Corinthians 1:3, 4). In God's word we find the promise that we can be reunited with our loved ones (John 5:28,29; Acts 24:15). The Bible tells us where this happy reunion will take place (Psalm 37: 11, 29; Matthew 5:5). We are told why we die (Genesis 3:17-19; Romans 5:12), and that the God of the Bible will end death forever (Isaiah 25:8; Revelation 21:3,4). Learning the truth about Jehovah, the God of the Bible (Psalm 83:18), God's Kingdom (Daniel 2:44), and the state of those who have died (Ecclesiastes 9:5), is the start to finding true comfort concerning loved ones who are sleeping in death (John 11:11-14; John 8:32. It is of vital importance to learn what the Bible really teaches concerning death. For more information please visit the website jw.org.

“ Our family would like to express condolences to your family. May you find comfort from Jehovah God's Word The Bible where He promises our dear loved ones a resurrection on a restored Beautiful Paradise Earth. Also, He even promises us in 1 Corinthians 15:26 that "the last enemy death will be brought to nothing". Our prayers are with your family.
