

Carl M. Wheeler

June 7, 1943 - September 1, 2004

Carl Marvin Wheeler was born in Baltimore, Maryland on June 7, 1943. He departed this life on September 1, 2004 at Sinai Hospital of Maryland. He was the son of the late James L. Wheeler and Marion B. Wheeler. As a child, he attended Union Memorial United Methodist Church, where he was the very first altar boy. He was also a member of the Junior Ushers under Ruth Johnson, a member of the Charles L. Johnson Junior Choir, a member of the Boy Scouts under Mr. Banks, and a member of the Youth Fellowship. He attended Baltimore Public Schools and was a graduate of Edmondson High School. He attended Morgan State College for two years and Coppin State for one year. He left school to go into the United States Army, where he served for three years. At the time of his Honorable Discharge, he was a Spec 5. He was employed by United States Post Office for 39 years and had planned to retire on September 1, 2004, the day of his death. But God wanted him more. Carl was a wonderful brother and uncle. He was very jovial and would help anyone in any way that he could. He had many friends both male and female—he was loved by all. He was more than just a brother; he was my very best friend. We will never forget him. His sister Shirley Cooper, his niece Gail Cooper and a host of cousins and friends survive him.

“ To the Wheeler's Family: I am sorry to learn of your recent loss. I send my sincere condolences to the family and friends. Sometimes Bible answers can give us comfort. The Bible book of Job 14: 14 as this question: "If an able body man dies can he live again?" The answer is found at John 11: 25, it reads, " Jesus said to her, "I am the resurrection and life. He that exercises faith in me, even though he dies, will come to life". These scriptures have brough me great comfort during my time of deep sorrow and I hope they will comfort you too. Please accept my condolence.##imported-begin##Denise King##imported-end##

“ To the Wheeler family, I am really sorry about your loss. Losing a loved one can be very distressing but we have a God who promises to give us comfort in our times of need (2 Corinthians 1:3,4). Call on him anytime and he is always willing to give a listening ear.##imported-begin##Sophia Briscoe##imported-end##

“ To the Family: I am truly sorry to hear of your loss. Death is such a devastating blow to us all. The Bible can be a wonderful source of comfort. Revelation 21: 3,4, Jehovah God says that he will wipe the tears from all of our eyes and death will be no more. May your family find comfort in this scripture.##imported-begin##Yolanda Johnson##imported-end##

“ My deepest sympathy during your time of sorrow but know that the God of comfort is with you all during this time of tribulation. (2Corinthian 1:3-4) Due to the many unforeseen occurrences that brings tragedy to our lives Jehovah God promises one day soon Death will be no more (Rev 21:3-4) and his son have been given the authority to bring all those in the memorial tombs back to life. John 5:28-29 Just think there will come a time not only will death be no more but Jehovah promises that no one will have to say I'm sick according to Isaiah 33:24. I feel the need to express these words of hope because so many of us today treasure the gift of life and we do all we can to maintain it to hold on to it. That is why it hurts so badly when our loved ones die. With so many of us desiring life today no matter how good or bad it is we still want life here on earth. No one looks forward to that time of death. That is why I am under obligation by the spirit and love of God to share that hope that is in our near future that the righteous shall inherit the earth and reside upon it forever according to Psalms 37: 29 along with the above stated promises on a paradise and peaceful earth. We all can hold true to this everlasting promise because Isaiah 55:11 states all the words Jehovah have spoken WILL NOT RETURN WITHOUT RESULTS. What a wonderful prospect for our future especially enlight of the fact that Hebrews 6:18 States of God, it is IMPOSSIBLE for him to lie.##imported-begin##Carter##imported-end##
