

Carl Leroy Strawder

March 25, 1924 - March 7, 2013

CARL L. STRAWDER, son of the late Walter H. Strawder and Isabelle Summerville departed this life peacefully on Thursday, March 7, 2013. Carl attended the Baltimore City Public School System; and served in the United States Army from 1943 to 1957 where he received a World War II Victory Medal. He retired from the United States Postal Services after thirty-four years.

He accepted Christ at an early age; and was a lifelong member of St. Francis Xavier Church.

Carl met and married Verna Strawder; and out of this union came four children.

Dad was a devoted father and a loving husband; who was a superior provider for his family. He loved jazz, antiques, old western movies, enjoyed flea markets, and collected “valuable junk”, where as he was given the nickname “SIDE EARLY” from his Mom. He also loved his best friend and wife Vera and family gatherings. Carl was a quiet spirited man who kept a smile on his face.

Carl was preceded in death by siblings, Jack, Elsie, Irene, Lillian and Thelma; and grandson, Michael Wright.

He leaves to cherish his memory: loving wife, Verna; four children, Bernadette "Sugar", Marquita "Ke-Ke", Carlos and Christine; devoted granddaughter, Madonna; special nieces, LaRentia and Debbie; adopted son, Roger; devoted caretaker, Earl Stith; two best friends, Joe Johnson and Earl Wiggins; two telephone buddies, Mr. Duke and Raymond; thirteen grandchildren, fifteen great-grandchildren; and a host of nieces, nephews, other relatives and friends.

“ *To the family of Carl Leroy Strawder:
Please accept my sincere condolences for your loss. Death is the enemy of all mankind, yet when it touches us personally, few seek the comfort they search for. The unscriptural doctrines that are taught concerning death do not leave those who are grieving with comfort or a hope. They do however, leave many with unanswered questions. The response that "God works in mysterious ways" or that "God needed another angel", does not satisfy the spiritual needs of those who are grieving. Nonetheless, many have found comfort in the pages of God's word the Bible (2 Corinthians 1:3, 4). In God's word we find the promise that we can be reunited with our loved ones (John 5:28,29; Acts 24:15). The Bible tells us where this happy reunion will take place (Psalm 37: 11, 29). We are told why we die (Genesis 3:17-19; Romans 5:12), and that the God of the Bible will end death forever (Isaiah 25:8; Revelation 21:3,4). Learning the truth about Jehovah, the God of the Bible (Psalm 83:18), God's Kingdom (Daniel 2:44), and the state of those who have died (Ecclesiastes 9:5), is the start to finding true comfort concerning loved ones who are sleeping in death (John 11:11-14; John 8:32). “ My deepest sympathies to your family. It is never easy losing someone you love, especially someone so caring of others. God promises permanent relief from our griefs at Rev. 21: 4, which states "And he will wipe EVERY tear from their eyes, and DEATH will be no more, neither will mourning nor outcry nor pain be anymore. The former things have passed away." May this scripture give you comfort and hope in the ransom sacrifice of our LORD, Jesus Christ, and the promises of our HEAVENLY FATHER.
