

Carla J. Murdock

February 27, 1966 - January 24, 2007

God closed the book of life on CARLA JOANN MURDOCK, January 24, 2007, after a brief illness and a courageous battle. She was the daughter of the late Harry Murdock, Sr. and Norma Demar, born on February 27, 1966 in Baltimore, Maryland. She was educated in the Baltimore City Public School System. Carla held down various jobs, but it was her zest for cooking that led her to work in the food industry. She worked as a caterer at Fishes Dishes. Her last job was at Linden Deli. Her good cooking and infectious personality gained her many friends and loyal customers from the neighboring businesses. She will be greatly missed by everyone who came there to eat. Carla loved her family dearly. She would give her last to anyone who was in need, especially her siblings. Through good times and bad, she was the prime example of how important it is to love and care for your family. She leaves to mourn: her children, Shantell, robin, Lonnie, Robert, DeAndre, Devin, Myesha, Ebony and Cierra; three brothers, Harry Murdock, David Murdock and Derrick Murdock; three sisters, Shirita, Murdock, Nicole Murdock and Tanya Masey; two grandchildren, Breonna and Malik; a stepmother, Martina Frost; five sisters-in-law, four uncles, three aunts, nieces, nephews and a host of other relatives and friends. And most of all, a beloved friend, confidant and companion, Derrick Tyrone Colbert, lovingly known to her as "Pumpkin."

“ I am sorry to learn of the death of Carla. I'm sure that this must have been a difficult time for all of you. I am forwarding scripture that will comfort you. Psalm 90:10 says that the usual human life span is 70 or 80 years. This was true when Moses wrote it but not so from the beginning. (compare Genesis 5:3-32.) Hebrews 9:27 says...It is reserved for men to die once for all time. This, too, was true when it was written. But not the case before God passed judgement on sinful Adam.##imported-begin##JT Nunnally##imported-end##

“ I pray that Jehovah God gives you the comfort and the strength that you need to cope with the passing of your loved one. Please accept my sympathy. Even though I don't personally know the family, we are all the children of God; and we all unfortunately lose our loved ones in death. That is why I why like to offer some scriptures of comfort to you, because I can imagine how you feel; especially the children. It's a hard thing for children to lose their mother. I have certainly experienced that tragedy, as well as losing my only son. What helps me to cope are God's wonderful promises of a resurrection, and a life free of violence, pain, sickness, and death for ourselves and our loved ones. Please read Isaiah 33:24, Rev.21 3-5, Avts 24:15, 2nd Peter 3:13, Isaiah 25:8, John 5:28,29, and Psalm 37:10,11,and 29. May your precious memories help you to cope.##imported-begin##R Johnson##imported-end##
