“ Very sorry to learn of the loss of your love one, I hope that the time that has passed is helping you to deal with this loss, time has a way of helping us to learn to not focus on our loss, but to focus on the memories we have of someone special to us, in time the pain will not be so hard to deal with , the memories will be with you always, let those memories help you to heal, in time you will feel the comfort of God's word at 2Corinthians 1:2-4, call on this God of mercy and comfort he will listen to you, he will be there for you. Please accept my deepest sympathy.##imported-begin##Josephine##imported-end##

“ I would like to offer my condolences to Mr. Vaugh's family. When death separates us from our loved ones deep sorrow can result, that's why the Bible calls death an "enemy." But, please be assured that God promises to do away with that enemy and all the pain it causes, according to 1Corinthians 15:26 and Revelation 21:4,5. Yes, these are the promises of God, who cannot lie.-Titus 1:2. May you continue to find comfort in your cherished memories and in God's Word of Truth, the Bible.##imported-begin##Valerie Johnson##imported-end##
