“ Dear family of Carlos, I am so sorry that you lost him at such a young age. Death is truly devastating, and even more so when a loved one dies in the prime of life as your Carlos was. I know how it feels, because I also lost my only son at a very young age. I want you to know that Jehovah our God has something much better in store for us. He promises a new world where violenc, sickness, and death will be no more. Gone will be such things as wars, crime, hunger, sickness, and death. God promises that his tent will be with mankind and he will be with them, and he will wipe out every tear from our eyes; and death will be no more, neither will mourning nor outcry nor pain will be anymore. These former things will have passed away. Then he promises, "Look! "I am making all things new." Rev 21:3-5. If you would like to know more concerning God's wonderful promises, I invite you to contact me at my e-mail address, and I will be happy to share this bible information with you.##imported-begin##R Johnson##imported-end##
