

Carlton Davis

January 23, 1948 - October 26, 2014

CARLTON DAVIS, SR., affectionately known as “Cotton,” was born to the late John Davis and Elizabeth H. Brown on January 23, 1948, in Baltimore, Maryland. He departed this life after a lengthy illness.

Carlton received his education in the Baltimore City Public School System. He worked for the Baltimore Transportation System and later began a career driving trucks for numerous companies.

On July 8, 1987, Carlton married the love of his life, Priscilla. He enjoyed spending time watching TV, going to the casinos, going fishing, sometimes going to bingo, but most of all, he loved spending time with his grandchildren, whom he loved so much. Carlton will be truly missed, but not forgotten.

He leaves to cherish his memory: his loving and devoted wife, Priscilla; seven sons, Carlton Jr., Todd, David, Nathan, Robert and Tony (one son, Dewayne, preceded him in death); four daughters, Teresa, D-Mia, Margaret and Robin; seven sisters; Louise, Joan, Dora, Barbara (Regina), Gloria and Teresa (one sister, Fawn, preceded him in death); fourteen brothers-in-law of which one he shared a special relationship with Leon Brown; seven sisters-in-law; two sons-in-law, Darell and Kevin; one daughter-in-law, Shanica; twenty-two grandchildren, sixteen great-grandchildren; one uncle, Boston C. Hicks (BC); a very good friend whom was always there in time of need, Brenda Curry; a host of nieces, nephews, cousins, other relatives and friends.

MY LAST REQUEST

Please don't say that I gave up, just say that I gave in.

Don't say I lost the battle, for it was God's war to lose or win,

Please don't say how good I was, but I did my best.

Just say I tried to do what's right, to give the most I could, not less.

Please don't give me wings or halos, that's for God to do.

I want no more than I deserve, no extras, just my due.

I am well with God, I made it home ...
