February 23, 1941 - August 13, 2006

CARLTON J. HARPER, SR., son of the late Hazel Harper, was born on February 23, 1941 in Grifton, North Carolina. He departed this life on August 13, 2006 after a lengthy illness. He received his education at Central High School in North Carolina where he graduated at age sixteen. Carlton wanted to further his career so he decided to move to Baltimore where he enlisted in the United States Army and spent thirteen years leaving with an honorable discharge. His next task in life was working for Mass Transit Administration where he drove buses for twenty-three years. Carlton loved driving because he met numerous friends along the way. Unfortunately, illness forced him into early retirement. "CC," as he was fondly known by his grandchildren, was a loving family man whom before his illness, loved to take his children fishing and have cookouts for family and friends where you could always find him on the grill mixing up his special sauces. Carlton leaves to mourn: his wife of twenty-one years, Barbara; two sons, Carlton Jr. and Keith; three daughters, Vernice, Michelle and Christina; brother, Charles of California; two sisters, Karen of North Carolina and Cheryl; three brothers-in-law, Barry of Kentucky, Braxton of Pennsylvania and Julius of North Carolina; daughter-in-law, LaWana of Baltimore of Baltimore; two sisters-in-law, Sharon of California and Jackie of Pennsylvania; and a host of nieces, nephews, cousins; and best friend, Richard Pimpleton.

“ Please accept my sincere condolences for your loss. I too have lost loved ones in death. Even though we know that death is inevitable, it is still difficult to accept. Death was not something that God intended for us. The thought of death is always distasteful and it always will be because Jehovah God has created within us the keen desire to live forever. We never get used to it. We feel deep down in our hearts that this should not happen because, “Even time indefinite he (God) has put in their heart,” says Ecclesiastes 3:11. One of the wonderful parts of his plan is the hope of the resurrection of dead loved ones. (John 5:25, 28, 29). Please be assured that Jehovah God loves us and wants the best for us. Take comfort in the promise that he has given us at Rev. 21: 3-5 of a new earth where there will be no more death.##imported-begin##Senita Swann##imported-end##

“ My deepest sympathy during your time of sorrow but knows that the God of comfort is with you all during this time of tribulation. (2Corinthian 1:3-4) Due to the many unforeseen occurrences that brings tragedy to our lives Jehovah God promises one day soon Death will be no more (Rev 21:3-4) and his son Jesus Christ have been given the authority to bring all those in the memorial tombs back to life. John 5:28-29 What a wonderful prospect for our future and our loved ones who have lost their life to our enemy death.##imported-begin##Carter##imported-end##

“ Please accept my sincere condolences for the loss of your dear loved one. First Corinthians 15:26 tells us that our "enemy death" will be done away with. There is much hope for our dead loved ones. Acts 24:15 assures us- "there is going to be a resurrection". When this happens there will be no more death, sickness, sorrow or pain. {Revelation 21:4} May you receive much comfort and strength as you ponder over these loving promises from the Bible.##imported-begin##S.
