

Carlton Renardo Moore

August 24, 1964 - March 5, 2020

Carlton Renaldo Moore, was born August 24, 1964 to George A. Moore and Joyce Jackson Moore.

Carlton attended Patrick Henry High School in Ashland, Virginia and later followed his passion for truck driving, just like his father. He loved solitary work and drove big rigs—local and long distance for several companies, until he became ill.

He loved music and was part of the setup crew for the Tiffany's Band & Show. Carlton was Chaplin of his motorcycle Club, Boys to Men and was one of the founding members of the club. Cookouts he loved, but playing video games day and all night was what he enjoyed most.

Carlton was a die-hard Eagles Fan. His request was to be buried in his Eagles attire when his time came. We are honoring his wishes. He was a wonderful son, sibling, nephew and friend. We thank God for his life and the inspiration he was to everyone.

“Today, we will collect our fond memories and hold dearly the part of him that has been given to us, so that in the days to come, we will join him in rejoicing, knowing that someday we will meet again. On that day, our tears will be wiped away, and we will join him in the great celebration of love, joy, peace, and eternal life with our savior.”

On Thursday, March 5, 2020, Carlton transitioned from his earthly journey to eternal rest. He leaves behind to cherish his memory a loving mother, Joyce J. M. Carter (James Yancey); father, George A. Moore (Gloria); brother, Gregory O. Moore; sister, Tiffany Moore; two aunts, Brenda Jackson and Lorraine J. Hines; one uncle, Arturo R. “Pepi” Jackson (Robin); first cousins, L’Onéal L. Hines, Komeco Jackson, Brandon Hines Sr. (Lookeba) and second cousins, Skylar, Brandon Jr. and Kennedy); His Kentucky family includes: four aunts, Lorena Rhea; Sarah Minnis, Barbara Stone and Nancey Montgomery (Chris); a very special devoted friend, Kathy Watkins; a devoted caregiver and friend, Diane; a special neighbor, Jerry; other relatives and friends.
