“ To the William's family, There are no words that can express, the pain that you are feeling. In this time of mourning, Don't look at this as being a sad day that your father has departed the earth. Look at it as the day he returned home. He is no longer suffering . So until the day you shall meet again , keep your head up and be strong for each other. Love is the most important thing amongst family. Love, The White family##imported-begin##Matreshia White##imported-end##
