

Carlyn Y. Anderson

April 10, 1983 - March 28, 2025

Carlyn Yvonne Anderson, 41 passed away peacefully on March 28, 2025, gathered by loved ones.

Born April 10, 1983 in Baltimore Maryland, to Charles Anderson Sr. and the late Roxanne Brown both of Brooklyn, Maryland. She was the first-born child to the union, a beacon of light, illuminating the lives of those around her.

Carlyn's number one priority was to keep the memory alive of those she loved most her mother and siblings. Kindness flowed through her veins as she always tried to help others in need. She was known to her siblings as "HER" Her laughter was contagious and infectious: friends describe her as having a beautiful soul, huge heart, bright smile and very generous with her time and attention.

In earlier years she attended Anne Arundel County Public Schools before returning music and dancing. Carlyn initially worked in the customer service industry, where her warm personality and strong work ethic shone. No matter the role, she approached her work with passion, resilience, and a deep care for those around her.

Her presence brought warmth and harmony to all who know her. She leaves to cherish her memories of her daughter Giniya, Aujanae and Kaiys sons Gene, Jamari Mosiah, Nasir and Nicholas, Her father Charles L Anderson Sr. Four sisters Charlene, Victoria Ebony, Lachira Three brothers Carl, Carron, and Frederick all of Maryland: and host of nieces, nephews, relatives and devoted friends.

In addition to her mother Roxanne Brown Carlyn was preceded in death by her brothers Charles Anderson Jr. and Robert Anderson.
