

Carmen M. DaCosta

October 2, 1927 - December 11, 2014

Carmen Maud DaCosta, daughter of the late Hubert DaCosta and Blanch McNish, was born on October 2, 1927 in Richmond, St. Marys Jamaica.

Her faith led her to the Catholic Church where she obtained her strong belief. She came to the USA (Baltimore, Md.) in the 1970s and was the pioneer of her family. She went on to work as a housekeeper for numerous years, before retiring in June 2000.

She was a very opinionated but loving aunt. She never allowed the challenges of life to get the best of her, instead she would beat to her own drum. She loved to make others laugh and was a big fan of daytime soap operas as well as Price is Right. There is no secret that she enjoyed eating and even though she never had a favorite food she did not shy away from throwing something together, whether you thought it was tasty or not.

She was a very loving sister and aunt who always made sure her family in Jamaica got whatever support they needed.

She leaves to cherish their memories: sister Joyce Wright, brother Caleb Pinnock, brother-in-law George Wright, two close friends Ms. Lee and Mrs. Walker and a host of nieces, nephews, other relatives and friends that she loved deeply.
