

Carmen V. Vasquez

March 15, 1926 - April 28, 2016

Carmen Valdés Vazquez, 90, of Richmond Hill NY and Bel Air MD, died April 28th 2016.

Carmen, daughter of Pedro Larrea and Maria Larrea Dihigo, loving wife of Manuel Vazquez and Julio P. Valdés, went to her reward for a life well-lived, on April 28th at the Oblate Sisters of Providence Convent in Arbutus, MD after a long battle with Parkinson's disease.

Carmen is survived by her sister Zoe Larrea, daughter, Miriam Ortiz, and four sons, Pedro and Manuel Vazquez, and Julio and Luis Valdés. Her second eldest son, Nestor Valdés, preceded her in death. She is also survived by thirteen grandchildren (Damien, Angelique, James, Jasmine, Remy, Justin, Micaela, Desire, Dominique, Alexander, Miguel, Andrew, and Cassie) and six great grandchildren, Carolyn, Brianna, Angel, Jordan, Damien Jr., and Robert. Carmen received a Bachelor's Degree in Social Work at the Universidad of Cuba, immigrated to the United States in 1957 with her husband Julio, worked in a factory, as a housewife, a Clerk to Queens District Court, and finally, as a representative at the New York D.M.V. until her retirement in 1990. Her love for birds, squirrels, dogs, and probably any other animal, was unmatched. Carmen also fancied herself a painter and passed her time painting, as well as keeping daily journals. Carmen passed on her love for cooking to her children. With her bubbly personality, she befriended all who met her, as long as you did things her way. During baseball season, she was an avid NY Mets fan, otherwise she could be found at the numerous casinos in Atlantic City NJ.

Thank you for all of the life lessons mami. You will, forever, be loved...

She will be greatly missed by her family, in-laws, and friends.

“ I am so sorry to learn about the death of your most precious loved one Carmen. I pray that your minds and hearts will be at peace and that you will know how much others share and bear your pains. How good to know that our loving heavenly father has promised to bring about new heavens and a new earth filled with righteousness. We can only imagine the joy that will fill our hearts at that time. How wonderful to it will be to welcome our dead loved ones back to life! John 5:28-29 ONCE AGAIN I AM SORRY FOR YOUR LOSS!
