

Carmon Williams Jr

February 22, 1947 - May 29, 2020

CARMON WILLIAMS JR., son of the late Carmon Williams and Iris Williams was born on February 22, 1947 in Rich Square, North Carolina. He departed this life suddenly on May 29, 2020.

Carmon grew up in Ahoskie, North Carolina. After general studies he joined the military. Carmon was a war veteran who was assigned to the United States Army where he earned several medals. He fought Vietnam War and Desert Storm. During and after his armed forces assignment he became a full time employee for the Federal government for 27 years.

He married the former Carol Ann Williams, and out of this union three children were born, Tina Carmon III, and Donnie. He is also survived by three grand children Cory, Camren, and Kaitlyn.

Carmon made numerous friends wherever he went. He will always be remembered for his boisterous laugh and his many jokes. He will be sincerely missed by everyone who knew him. He was always a true friend and devoted family man.

He leaves to mourn: his brothers, Raymond Williams and Michael Williams; sisters Mary Williams, Agnes Ellis, and Marva Jenkins; nieces, nephews, cousins and a host of other relatives and friends.

“ As I sit here thinking about my uncle C.J. I think of his smile and how he would come to my house and see me and my siblings and he would always bring us candy. He and my dad would sit for hours and tell old lame jokes, but the were funny to them. Oh how they would laugh and laugh. My uncle CJ was a great man and uncle. He always would confuse me with my other sister but would say wether I call you one of your sisters name alot I love all my nieces to pieces.. Glow! And we both would bust out laughing. I love you uncle C.J. R.I.H.

“ I woke up one day and you were gone
No sad goodbyes, no warm so longs
But what you left for me is just as good
To really know someone who walked like men should
When you first met me I was selfish and rude.
But you wasn't having it. You made it clear you weren't that dude
You taught me to speak right on my behalf
You softened me up with that contagious laugh
There is so much to say- so much about you
What a good friend you have been both tried and true

You came to my rescue in my time of need
Fussing the whole time while doing the deed
After many years of our ups and our downs
My world won't be the same without you around
For someone who accomplished so much in your life you remained humble, treating everyone nice
Your smile and laughter and those hugs out of the blue
What a good and loving friend to me tried and true

Your corny jokes always put my temper to rest
You could change my whole outlook. You were the best.
But just believe this, there will never ever be someone to call my friend matching your integrity
So little by little I have to let go
Stop all my crying and let you go home
I'm built up from the inside because of you
What a good and caring friend to me tried and true

I know this is selfish, but i wish you were here
Why would you trade heaven for what I can give?
You're now reunited with family and friends
Aretha and Al are playing to no end
Your knees and your legs work like never before
The feeling of pain is never no more

*Or maybe you're like you were as a kid
Running through woods and playing with twigs Whatever you're doing, I know you are free and I'm grateful that God shared your friendship with me
I'm sad and I'm lonely. Not sure what to do But I'll never forget you Carmon Williams ... my real friend tried and true*

*I love you CJ
Goodbye for now,*
