

Carnell Antonio Willingham

December 17, 1962 - January 21, 2017

Carnell Antonio “Carnie” Willingham, son of the late Frank Willingham, and Barbara Willingham was born December 17, 1962 in Baltimore, MD. He departed this life on January 21, 2017 after a lengthy illness.

He received his education at Arlington Elementary School, where he was an Honor Roll student, then he got sick and completed High School at the Children’s School and Hospital on Greenspring Avenue. Carnell used to love doing landscaping with a friend of his, until he got too sick to continue.

He was baptized at Fulton Baptist Church when he was young. He later started going to an “All Christians Church” up until he was hospitalized a month ago.

Carnell belonged to a place called “Caring Hands” since 2001. Carnell had several friends at “Caring Hands”, he loved people, music and watching television and movies. He will truly be missed.

He leaves to mourn: his mother, Barbara Willingham; his younger brother Andre, his oldest brother (Frankie) who passed in December 2014. He also leaves his aunt, Bernice Willingham-Tarver; his uncle Otto Willingham; aunts: Leatrice Ayres, Rowena Lansey, Sharon Jeffries, and Angela Kilson, an uncle by marriage: Tyrone Jeffries, a grandmother, Annie Marie Jackson, aunt by marriage, Mary Jackson, and a host of cousins and friends
