

Carol Ann Glenn

November 10, 1948 - January 29, 2005

Carol Ann Glenn, daughter of the late James and Alma Sparks, was born on November 10, 1948, in Baltimore, Maryland. She departed this life on January 29, 2005, after a lengthy illness. Carol attended Baltimore City Public Schools and Saint Francis Xavier Catholic School. She received a Bachelor of Arts and Master's degree from Coppin State University in the area of special education. Carol taught special education for the Baltimore City Public School System for over 20 years, most recently at Walbrook Senior High School. Carol was a very devoted foster parent to several children. She used her expertise on weekends dealing with children with special needs as a house counselor. Carol was a member of the First Mt. Olive Freewill Baptist Church and Mt. Pleasant Church and Ministries. In addition to attending church, Carol loved listening to gospel music, watching movies, attending plays and socializing with family and friends. Carol was a very loving wife, mother, sister, aunt, and grandmother. She leaves to mourn: her husband, Jeremiah Glenn, Jr.; two sons, Leonard Sparks and Kevin Sparks; one grandson, Jaythan Sparks; two sisters, Elizabeth S. Thornton and Antoinette Sparks; four brothers, Frank, Donald, Douglas, and Lawrence; brother-in-law, Cephas D. Thornton, Sr.; two sisters-in-law, Denise (Dee) Sparks and Denise Sparks; numerous nieces and nephews; and a host of other relatives and friends.

“ Hello Family & Friends, I am so sorry to hear of your loss and I am offering my condolences. The scriptures can be of great comfort to us all. I am reminded of the scripture at Revelation 21:3,4 where Almighty God says that he is going to wipe the tears from our eyes and death will be no more neither will mourning nor crying nor pain be any more. The Bible also promises that we will be able to see our dead loved ones again by means of a resurrection. (John 5:28,29) It is my hope that this scripture comforts you. ##imported-begin##Sophia Briscoe##imported-end##
