“ *My name is Lynda Sydnor. Carol and I met at the dialysis center in Catonsville. I just found out about her passing and would like to extend my deepest sympathy. She was the first person I met when I started dialysis and what a joy she was to sit next to. She was such a kind person with a loving spirit. As much as I disliked going to dialysis, I always looked forward to seeing Carol and laughing and talking with her. She helped make those treatments go by so fast. I always kept her and the other patients in my prayers. Praying for your family that God comforts you all and gives you peace that passes all understanding. 🥹👼
Missing a true warrior
I love you Carol, RIP*
