

Carolyn Anderson

June 21, 1963 - December 18, 2001

Carolyn Ann Anderson, daughter of James Anderson and Evelyn Brown, was born June 21, 1963 in Baltimore, Maryland. She departed this life December 18, 2001 after a lengthy illness. She received her education in the Baltimore City Public Schools. Carolyn was employed by several Baltimore City government agencies. She also worked as a nurse's assistant. During Carolyn's teenage years, she moved with her grandmother Rose Calloway. They had such a special bond more like mother and daughter. Grandma rose was very devoted and dedicated, and always looked after her to the very end. Carolyn received Christ at an early age. She joined Fellowship Baptist Church, which is now the Greater New St. John Baptist Church, under the leadership of Rev. Kelly. Carolyn rededicated her life back to Christ and decided recently to be rebaptized. At Greater New St. John she was known for sending cards to the congregation for their birthdays, holidays and just for encouragement. She always had a smile, and the children will miss her the most for the candy she would sneak and give them on Sunday mornings. Carolyn loved and highly respected her stepfather, Edward Brown Sr. He treated her like his own. Edward preceded her in death. She leaves to cherish her memory: her mother, Evelyn Brown; her father, James Anderson; one brother, Edward Brown Jr.; three sisters, Diane and Wanda Anderson and Angela Jackson; a god-sister, Shanon Price; a special friend, Robin Williams; four aunts, a host of great-uncles, great-aunts, nieces, nephews, cousins and friends.

Tribute Wall

“ Carolyn Anderson

---

October 13, 2022 at 08:33 AM

“ Please accept our heartfelt sympathy in your time of great sorrow. Only those who have lost a loved one can know the depths of your feelings. We hope our caring will make your sorrow easier to bear.##imported-begin##The March Family and Staff##imported-end##

---

July 02, 2010 at 02:21 PM