

Carolyn Ann Peete-Webb

July 6, 1950 - March 20, 2010

Carolyn Ann Peete-Webb, 59, was born to the late Ethridge and Louise Pete on July 6, 1950 in Richmond, Virginia. She was preceded in death by her husband, Richard Ernest Webb. A true family member that was a Godly woman who loved life and loved people. She truly loved her Lord and Savior, Jesus Christ and was devoted to praying. She was especially fond of everything in God's great outdoors. Kindhearted and generous to a fault, she was always willing to help anyone in need and gave freely of her time to uplift others. She was loved, honored, and revered by many because she was so kind and gave so freely of herself without the thought of receiving anything in return. Those who remain to cherish her memories include her beloved first born son, Tyrone Peete and her baby girl, Tameka Jeter; one son-in-law, Lyndell Jeter; 5 grandchildren, Dominique Hargrove, Kioko Harris, Marlesha Jeter, Tyriq Harvin and Lyndell "LJ" Jeter; one great-grandchild, Dominique Hargrove Jr.; one sister, Nellie "Peaches" Tucker; one brother, Freddie "Main" Peete; a host of nieces, nephews, other relatives and friends.

“ I would like to convey my condolences for the loss of your loved one. Sickness and death was never part of Jehovah God's original purpose because time indefinite was put into our hearts (Eccl.3:11). John5:28-29 and Acts24:15 assures us that all those who have fallen asleep in death will have the opportunity to live again by means of a resurrection on a paradise earth (Psalm37:11,29). Continue to draw close to God in prayer and he will sustain you during this difficult time (Psalm55:22).##imported-begin##C. Murphy##imported-end##

“ Please accept my deepest condolences for I too know the pain of losing my mother, and at times that pain can be overwhelming. As you reflect on the fond memories that you hold dear, may you also find comfort, as I have in knowing that our loving Heavenly Father Jehovah promises us that very soon, all those in the 'memorial tombs' will hear the voice of his son Jesus and 'come out' by means of the resurrection. (John 5:28,29) What a wonderful day that will be!##imported-begin##Kevin Jackson##imported-end##
