

Carolyn E. Awadalla

June 14, 1950 - June 8, 2024

Life's Legacy

Today, we honor and celebrate the extraordinary life of Carolyn Elizabeth Awadalla. She was born June 14, 1950 in Richmond, Virginia to the late Charles Anderson, Sr. and Marion Anderson. She was preceded in death by her parents; brother Charles Anderson, Jr. and her daughter, Debbie D. Baker.

Carolyn received her formal education at John F. Kennedy High School in Richmond, Virginia.

Carolyn accepted Christ as her Savior at the age of 28 and was united with Fountain Baptist Church. There she served as a choir member.

For over 45 years she was a private duty nurse, where she retired. She served her patients with loving kindness and enjoyed taking care of them. Carolyn provided the care they needed for many years.

In her leisure, she enjoyed cooking, watching movies and having conversations with people and loved taking care of her fur babies, Oscar and Eddie Spaghetti.

On Saturday, June 8, 2024 God embraced her with open arms and welcomed

Carolyn to eternal rest.

She leaves to cherish her memory: loving daughter, NaQuita Taylor (Gerald); adored granddaughter, Paris Baker; grandson, Davon Baker; great grandchildren, Milan Baker and Channing Baker; Goddaughter: Linda Caraballo; Sister, Marcia Mae Anderson; three brothers, Cliff Anderson, Robert Anderson and Marvin Anderson; along with a host of dear friends that she loved dearly.

Carolyn you will be forever carried in our hearts and minds.

Fly high sweet baby, how lucky we are to have had someone so special, makes saying “goodbye” so hard.

Carolyn had a special spirit that she shared with all she came in contact, her smile welcomed you in, her laughter brought joy, and she gave love so freely. She was special. I will miss her crazy Facebook post with the many faces of Carolyn...LoL. I hope that the joy she so freely share with all, will bring you all memories that will slowly ease the pain of missing her. "All Will Be Well" because Carolyn would not have it any other way! Sending Hugs, Love, and Prayers to see you all through this very, very difficult time.
