

Carolyn Brown

November 17, 1946 - September 20, 2003

CAROLINE BROWN, was born on November 17, 1946 in Baltimore, Maryland to Eula Crawford and the late Humphery Brown. She departed her earthly life after a lengthy illness on Saturday, September 20, 2003 at Caton Manor nursing home in Baltimore. Carolyn was educated in Baltimore City Public Schools and in 1965 she graduated from Edmondson High School; during her tenure there she was a member of the Junior Achievement Club. At an early age, Carolyn accepted Christ as her Lord and personal Savior. Growing up, she sang on the youth choir at Evergreen A.M.E. Church. At her death she was a member of Charity Community Church of God. Carolyn was employed as a Customer Service Representative for several years at Hutzlers Department Store which was located in downtown Baltimore. During the holidays she enjoyed helping out in the gift wrapping department. On May 30, 1974, Carolyn was married to Louis Harrison. Carolyn was a strong independent woman, who loved her family and devoted her life to her two children Darren and Lisa and her four grandchildren. Although Carolyn suffered for twenty-five years with her illness (Multiple Sclerosis), she never lost faith nor uttered a word of dismay. She continued to fight a good battle. During her last few years, aunt Theresa cared for Carolyn in her home until she had to be placed in a nursing home. Carolyn leaves to cherish her memory: her husband Louis Harrison; one son Darren Gregory; one daughter Lisa Gregory; four grandchildren, Brittany Alston, Brooke Gregory, Darrius Gregory and Isaiah Gregory; mother Eula Crawford; one brother Bernard

Brown; five sisters, Joan Johnson, Miriam Copeland, Elaine Rice, Marsha Seabron and Jacqueline Conney; one sister-in-law Janice Brown; and a host of aunts, uncles, niece, nephews, cousins and many loving friends.

Tribute Wall

“ Carolyn Brown

March 25, 2023 at 10:25 AM

“ Carolyn Brown

October 13, 2022 at 08:33 AM

“ Darren and Lisa, may you know that God makes no mistakes. He is always there for you, all you have to do is call on Him. May you always be blessed.##imported-begin##Glynis B. Keke, Funeral Director##imported-end##

July 02, 2010 at 02:21 PM

“ I will remember the times when I visited cousin Carolyn when she lived with Aunt Theresa and her family. I am sure that Carolyn appreciated all of their kindness and hard work during the years when they took care of her. I am also sure that she will be especially missed by her grandchildren, who used to have lively conversations with her as she maneuvered in her wheelchair throughout the home they used to share. Carolyn's suffering has ended, and she is living in God's house now. I pray that you will know this in your hearts and find comfort through your sadness. Blessings and Peace.##imported-begin##Valerie Smith##imported-end##

July 02, 2010 at 02:21 PM

“ Sorry to hear about your loss. May you be comforted with the words of Revelation 21:4"And he will wipe out every tear from their eyes, and death will be no more , neither will mourning nor outcry nor pain be anymore. The former things have passed away. This scripture thought has comforted many in times of sorrow.##imported-begin##BEVERLY TRIPP##imported-end##

July 02, 2010 at 02:21 PM

“ My deepest sympathy during your time of sorrow but know that the God of comfort is with you all during this time of tribulation. 2Corinthian 1:3-4##imported-begin##Carter##imported-end##

July 02, 2010 at 02:21 PM