

CAROLYN R. BROWN

July 15, 1950 - July 21, 2020

Do you remember Mary ... “A man named Lazarus was sick. He lived in Bethany with his sisters, Mary and Martha. This is the Mary who later poured the expensive perfume on the Lord’s feet and wiped them with her hair. Her brother, Lazarus, was sick. So the two sisters sent a message to Jesus telling him, “Lord, your dear friend is very sick.” But when Jesus heard about it he said, “Lazarus’s sickness will not end in death. No, it happened for the glory of God so that the Son of God will receive glory from this.” So although Jesus loved Martha, Mary, and Lazarus, he stayed where he was for the next two days. Finally, he said to his disciples, “Let’s go back to Judea.” But his disciples objected. “Rabbi,” they said, “only a few days ago the people in Judea were trying to stone you. Are you going there again?” Jesus replied, “There are twelve hours of daylight every day. During the day people can walk safely. They can see because they have the light of this world. But at night there is danger of stumbling because they have no light.” Then he said, “Our friend Lazarus has fallen asleep, but now I will go and wake him up.” The disciples said, “Lord, if he is sleeping, he will soon get better!” They thought Jesus meant Lazarus was simply sleeping, but Jesus meant Lazarus had died. So he told them plainly, "Lazarus is dead. And for your sakes, I'm glad I wasn't there, for now you will really believe. Come, let's go see him. Thomas, nicknamed the Twin, said to his fellow disciples, Let's go, too and die with Jesus. When Jesus arrived at Bethany, he was told that Lazarus had already been in his grave for four days. Bethany was only a few miles down the road from Jerusalem, and many of the people had come to console Martha and Mary in their loss. When Martha got word that Jesus was coming, she went to meet him. But Mary stayed in the house. Martha said to Jesus, "Lord, if only you had been here, my brother would not have died. But even now I know that God will give you whatever you ask." Jesus told her, "Your brother will rise again." Yes, Martha said, he will rise when everyone else rises, at the last day. Jesus told her, "I am the resurrection and the life. Anyone who believes in me will live, even after dying. Everyone who lives in me and believes in me will never ever die. Do you believe this, Martha?" Yes, Lord, she told him. I have always believed you are the Messiah, the Son of God, the one who has come into the world from God." Then she returned to Mary. She called Mary aside from the mourners and told her, "The Teacher is here and wants to see you." So Mary immediately went to him. Jesus had stayed outside the village, at the place where Martha met him. When the people who were at the house consoling Mary saw her leave so hastily, they assumed she was going to Lazarus's grave to weep. So they followed her there. When Mary arrived and saw Jesus, she fell at his feet and said, "Lord, if only you had been here, my brother would not have died." When Jesus saw her weeping and saw the other people wailing with her, a deep anger welled up within him, and he was deeply troubled. "Where have you put him?" he asked them. They told him, "Lord, come and see." Then Jesus wept. The people who were standing nearby said, "See how much he loved him. But some said, 'This man healed a blind man. Couldn't he have kept Lazarus from dying?'" Jesus was still angry as he arrived at the tomb, a cave with a stone rolled across its entrance. "Roll the stone aside," Jesus told them. But Martha, the dead man's sister, protested, "Lord, he has been dead for four days. The smell will be terrible." Jesus responded, "Didn't I tell you that you would see God's glory if you believe?" So they rolled the stone aside. Then Jesus looked up to heaven and said, "Father, thank you for hearing me. You always hear me, but I said it out loud for the sake of all these people standing here, so that they will believe you sent me." Then Jesus shouted, "Lazarus, come out!" And the dead man came out, his hands and feet bound in graveclothes, his face wrapped in a headcloth. Jesus told them, "Unwrap him and let him go!" Many of the people who were with Mary believed in Jesus when they saw this happen. (The Living Bible John 11:1-45). And so at last many of the Jewish leaders who were with Mary and saw it happen, finally believed in him.

"Dear Friends, don't be bewildered or surprised when you go through the fiery trials ahead, for this is no strange, unusual thing that is going to happen to you. Instead, be really glad---because these trials will make you partners with Christ in his suffering, and afterwards you will have the wonderful joy of sharing his glory in that coming day when it will be displayed.” (The Living Bible 1st Peter 4: 12-13).

“ *To the Family of Carolyn R. S. Brown:
You Have Our Deepest Sympathy*

Carolyn and I had a long friendship. We met as little girls at St. Paul Baptist Church when it was located on Guilford Avenue and Lanvale Street. We attended Sunday School, Sunday Morning Worship, and Vacation Bible School together. We both became teachers. As we were out of school during the Summer, we taught Vacation Bible School classes at St. Paul Baptist Church. A few times we switched up being the director of Vacation Bible School. My children attended with me. Vacation Bible School changed from day to night. That caused me to get my children home late. The next year I decided not to teach Vacation Bible School. Carolyn was very dedicated. She continued to teach Vacation Bible School as well as Sunday School. Carolyn had a calm quiet way about everything. She was warm, caring, and incredibly supportive. She gave my mother and many others rides to their homes, after church service, when needed. Carolyn was a sophisticated lady and role model. Although we were not related, she was family to us. My family has lost a very special friend.

To Carolyn's family and friends, I say, remember the great times you had together. Her love is a part of who you are, and who you will always be.

“ *Dear Terry,
My heart is sad after hearing of your loss. I haven't been in contact with Carolyn for years, but some people stay in your heart for a lifetime. I met Carolyn in 1974 after graduating and becoming a teacher in Baltimore City. We shared a classroom at North Bend Elementary for a few years and our classrooms were close while at Westport Elementary. I learned so much just being able to watch her teach. She was a true educator and loved her children. Our families became close as did our friendship. She will be missed. I pray for your peace at this very sad time.*

*"The Lord is my shepherd; I shall not want.
He maketh me to lie down in green pastures:
he leadeth me beside the still waters. He restoreth my soul: he leadeth me in the paths of righteousness for his name's sake. Yea, though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death, I will fear no evil: for thou art with me; thy rod and thy staff they comfort me. Thou preparest a table before me in the presence of mine enemies: thou anointest my head with oil; my cup runneth over."*

“ Carolyn and Terry and my husband and I moved into our neighborhood 1 month apart 31 years ago. They have been wonderful neighbors thru the years. We have watched our grandchildren grow up to be fine young adults. Carolyn was a quiet classy lady. My husband, Harry, loved talking to her and Terry and always seemed to make her laugh. It is hard to beleive that Terry and I lost the loves of our life just a year apart. I had my soul mate for 53 years . I would like to think that he welcomed her home with open arms and that he still has her laughing. I am here for you Terry and family. Mary Jo
