

Carolyn Ann Carter

January 29, 1962 - September 5, 2017

CAROLYN ANN CARTER was born on January 29, 1962 to the late James Irvin Flight and Juanita Pinkston Flight. After a lengthy battle of cancer, she departed this life on September 5, 2017. Carolyn was born and raised in Baltimore, MD. She attended and graduated from Carver High School. She was affectionately known as "Senior Citizen."

Carolyn accepted Jesus Christ as her Lord and Savior early in life and was a long-time member of the Sweet Hope Free Will Baptist Church. She served as a Senior Usher and was a faithful bible scholar.

Carolyn worked for Potomac Physicians for almost 30 years. She worked very hard and was always a dedicated team player. She approached each task fervently and wanted things done to perfection. She was a people person and people would often gravitate to her and she was always a pleasure to be around.

Carolyn was married to Tyrone Carter. She was blessed with a son, Antwan. Her world revolved around her son and later included his wife Enjoli and three grandchildren Tyra, Taniyah, and Taylor.

"Senior Citizen" was known for her great sense of humor and her tool box. Carolyn could fix just about anything. If you needed a curtain rod up, a wall painted, a GPS, or even a wedding planned, she was the one to call. Carolyn was very family oriented and loved spending time with her grandchildren. You could always find her in a mall shopping with one of her sisters or eating at one of her favorite restaurants, which was just about any one you could think of. Even the staff of McDonald's knew that she was coming to order her hamburger happy meal, toy included.

Halloween was one of her favorite holidays that she enjoyed the most. Senior Citizen will be missed by so many family, friends, and store employees. If you can remember anything about her, you knew she would light up a room. Many of us never would of thought that she was battling this illness for the long period of time that she did.

Carolyn is preceded in death by her husband, Tyrone Carter; two brothers, Jimmy and Kevin Flight; and granddaughter Tyra Hughes.

She leaves to cherish loving memory; her loving son, Antwan Hguhes and his wife (Enjoli); grandchildren, Taniyah and Taylor Hughes; five caring sisters (their spouses), Denise Rogers (Barbara), Bonita Grant (Michael Sr.), Irvina Peterson (Mark), Doreen Pendleton (Leon), Frances Flight, Angela Sheppard (David), LaTangela Maddox; brother, Jeffrey Flight; aunt, Dorothy Flight-Gilyard; uncle, Paul Flight; godson, Aaron Campbell; best friend, Tammy Torrence; a host of nieces, nephews, cousins, other relatives and friends.

*This devastating news pains me so much since I had just talk to you while in Florida and had been trying to contact you since arriving in Baltimore a few months ago. Knowing how much you and Tyrone were parents to me and still no one had thought it important to contact me to let me know that my aunt that meant the world to me has passed to be with her beloved and I'm having a hard time excepting this remembering the last words you said to me and the special bond we had. I love you so much Aunt Carolyn and this has left a tremendous hole in my heart and I must find a way to deal with not one but both my loving parents/aunt/uncle have now passed on to be my beloved Angels. You have left me with some amazing memories that I will cherish the rest of my life but I know you are now happiest by the side of the love of you life, your beloved Tyrone and God your Father. I will see you again and I know that you will continue to keep a close eye on me. Love you Always and Forever,
